*Oh, we love THE HALLS OF IVY that surround us here today.
And we will not forget tho' we be far,
far away.
To the hallow'd HALLS OF IVY every voice will bid farewell,
And shimmer off in twilight like

past, present, future

MR. HAROLD HARGRAVE, superintendent, Mr. George Boklund and Mr. Merlin Porter, school board members, proudly watch a representative from Perkins and Will, architects for the new school, lay the cornerstone.

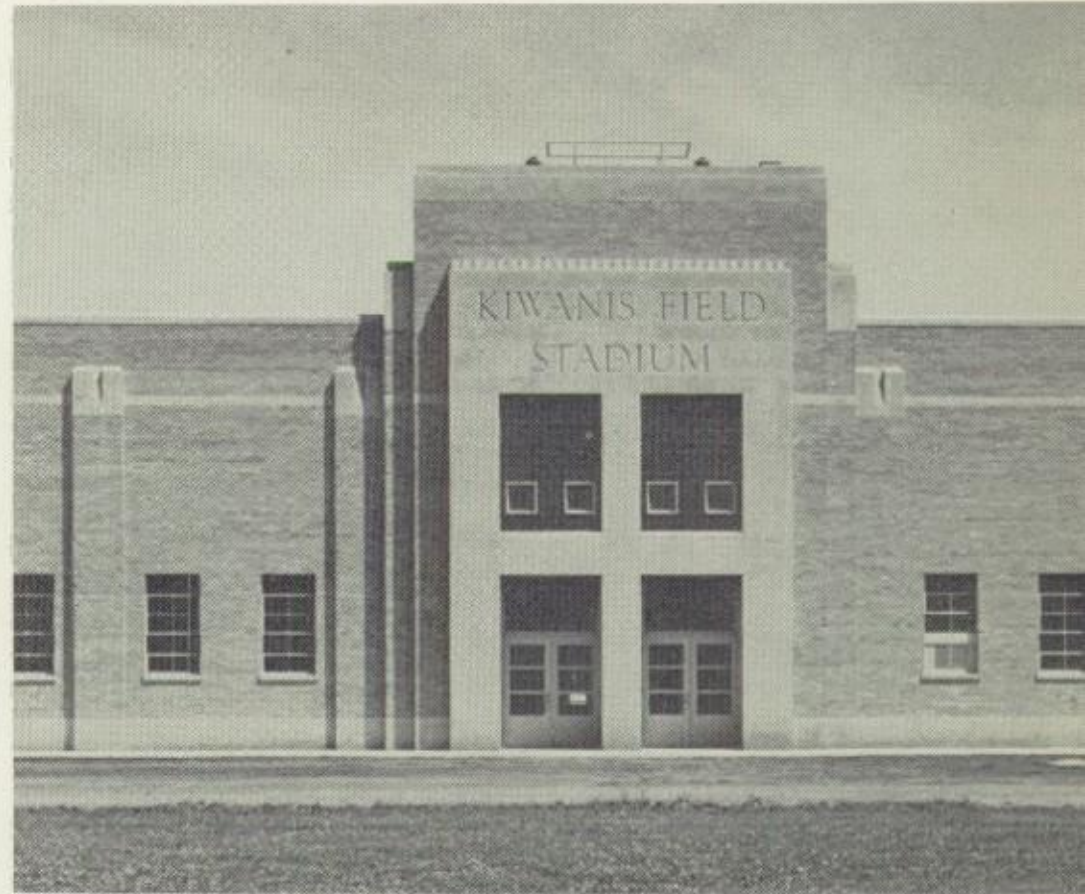

For the school board and the citizens of LaPorte, November 7, 1921, was a momentous day. It was on that day that the decision was made to build a new school. Possible sites were considered when the board met again on February 23 of the following year. Though many favored the site located at the south end of Michigan Avenue in the vicinity now occupied by the Beechwood Golf Course, the decision was made in favor of the present site on April 3, 1922. The firm of Larson and Danielson—architects from LaPorte—was selected to design the building. The total cost of the land and building, designed to accommodate eight hundred students, was estimated at $290,000.

The cornerstone for the new building was laid during impressive services on June 23, 1923. The city band played several selections and Attorney K. M. Smith, a local man, was the featured speaker. His message to the group was one which would be appropriate at such a function regardless of the year. He said: "Too many of us think that we have done our full duty when we build a fine school and equip it with a corps of teachers. In reality, our real duty is just beginning. What the educational system of the county of LaPorte needs is real interest in the welfare and progress on the part of the citizens of the community. Too few of us ever take the trouble to visit the school we are supporting."

There have been several important changes since the building was completed. The annex was added in 1931 to house the music, industrial arts, and commercial departments of the school. It also raised the maximum capacity from eight hundred to eleven hundred students. Another major addition was made to the school in 1955 when the gymnasium was enlarged and modernized. It was equipped with separate showers for the boys and girls, offices for gym instructors, a room for wrestling and one for hand ball. In 1957 the court surrounding the auditorium was converted into classrooms, new counselor's offices and a pleasant lounge for teachers. The library was also remodeled and enlarged at this time. The building to the east of the school was purchased for the office of the superintendent and his staff. The Halls of Ivy will be replaced in the fall of 1962 by a new modern building.

THE NEW ADMINISTRATION BUILDING is located next door to the school.

KIWANIS FIELD is a familiar sight to all football and track fans.

THE LIBRARY, always a scene of much research and study, is on the second floor of the main building.

The orchestra, under the direction of Amos G. Wessler, along with the Girl's Glee Club, represented LaPorte High School's first efforts in organized music in the new school. By 1927, a band, a Boys' Glee Club, and a piano ensemble class had been instituted by Mr. Wessler and Mrs. Lola Vawter, who had joined the music staff. During the next few years, rapid expansion occurred in the music department. Other choral groups were formed and the Junior Amateur Music Club, forerunner of Modern Music Masters, was begun. The plan of producing annual Gilbert and Sullivan operettas was begun under the direction of Mrs. Vawter with Miss Thelma Beesley as speech director. The Music Department began to branch out and give other operettas, such as Amahl and the Night Visitors.

In the late thirties Gerald Doty, now a professor of music at Indiana University, came to direct the band, orchestra and Boys' Glee Club; Bert Boggs was band instrument instructor at this time. An able director of instrumental music was Anthony Guerrera, who followed Mr. Doty. Mr. Guerrera later joined Fred Waring. Hagin Harper, Joseph Lanese, and Mrs. Vawter constituted the music department during the early forties. Mr. Harper and Mr. Lanese were succeeded by directors Paul LeResche and Mrs. Wayne D. Williams.

In 1947 Guy Foreman and the late Gene Pennington joined the faculty. Mr. Pennington improved the instrumental department and introduced the Dance Band. As a service to the community, he also directed a large, volunteer choral group in an annual production of the Christmas Messiah. Mr. Pennington remained as supervisor of the Music Department until his untimely death in 1954.

Following the death of Mr. Pennington, Robert McCuaig took over the direction of the band and orchestra and David Simpson joined the music faculty; previous to this time, Ann Naftzger Bilger had been directing A Cappella and Girl's Glee Club.

Mr. Simpson then took over the latter two groups and introduced a popular group, the Swing Choir. This organization was an immediate success and filled many out-of-town engagements, including Governor Handley's inauguration. The Swing Choir is still a popular extra-curricular activity of the Music Department.

man, who for several years had directed the Junior High School music department, had meanwhile moved up to the high school in 1956 and assumed responsibility for the band and orchestra. Since he began directing, these groups have won many gold medal awards in regional and state music competition.

Through the work of these able directors and the enthusiastic participation of the students, LaPorte High School has earned an outstanding position in state music circles.

Social events have always played an important role in the lives of students at LaPorte High School. The Prom, Girl Reserve formal, and the competition for numerous titles of "Queen" have been among the most publicized of these student activities.

The Girl Reserve formal was originally a Valentine Day dance, but was later changed to a Christmas dance. Each girl must earn a service point by helping some worthy cause to be eligible to attend. The Prom is considered by most students the highlight of the year. Once a dinner preceded the dance, but now Prom-goers are entertained by an After-Prom put on by the service clubs and the Chamber of Commerce of the city. Each year the students elect by secret ballot a Homecoming Queen, a Track Queen, a Prom Queen, and their Courts.

QUEEN DONNA HANNA reigned over the 1945 Junior Prom.

RUTH WALK AND BETTY J. WELLS rehearse a scene from the 1945 faculty play.

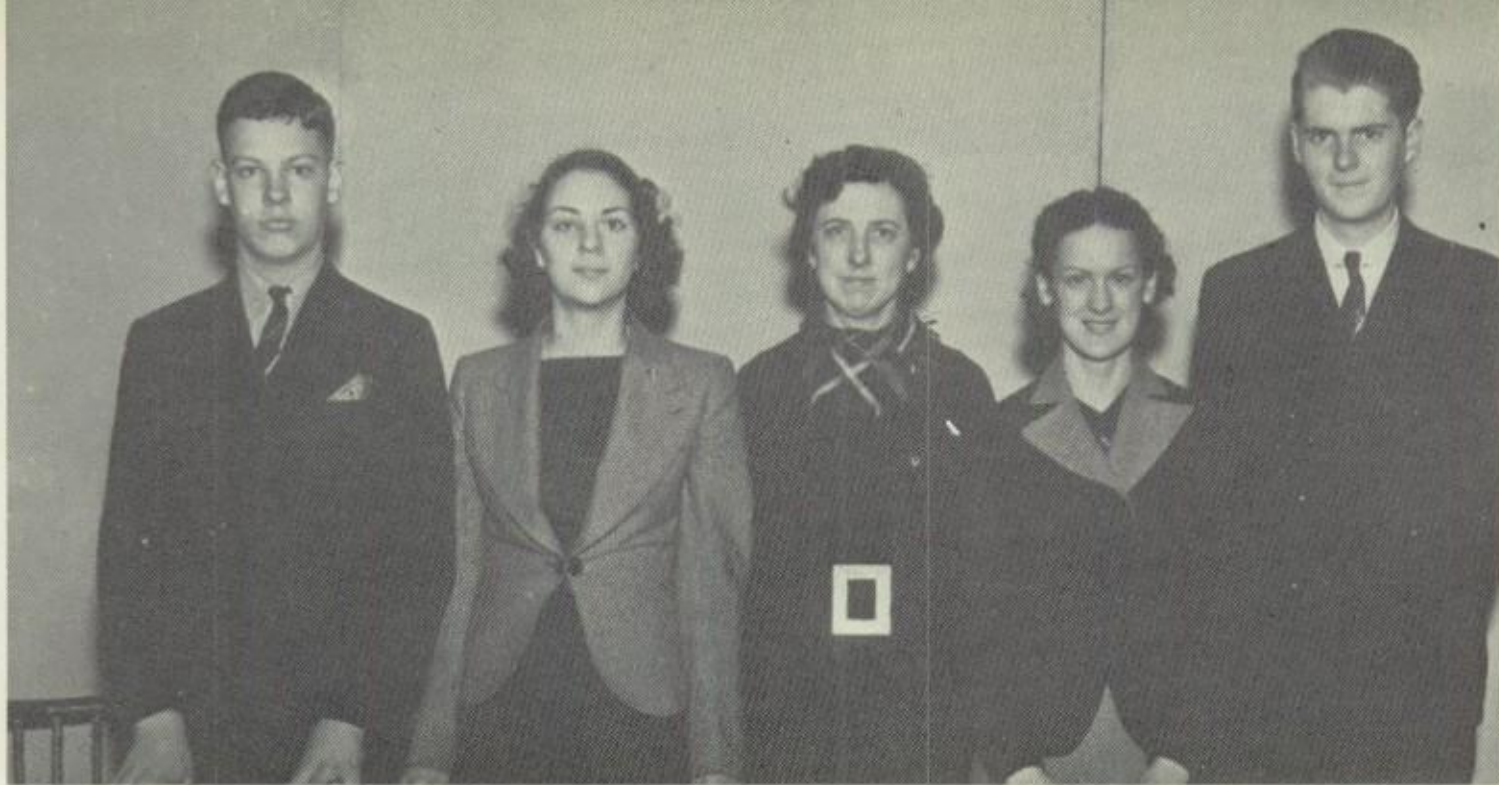

Many fine teachers have been associated with the history of our school. Each department has had numerous individuals who have given much time and effort to the cause of education. Because of these unselfish teachers and their ideals, our high school has achieved a superior academic standing.

Four outstanding superintendents — Mr. E. B. Wetherow, Mr. W. R. Godwin, Mr. Paul Boston, and Mr. Harold Hargrave—and four equally capable principals—Mr. William Ludlow, Mr. John French, Mr. Harold Hargrave, and Mr. J. Robert Miller—have served our school in the years from 1924 to the present. Our school is also indebted to the many school board members who have devoted their efforts to the administration of our school system.

teachers contributed much

THE LATE MRS. EVA THOMPSON LITTLE (center) is shown here with the 1937 State Champion debate team composed of Paul Moo, Elsie Lifan, Gladys Lewis, and Herbert Padleschat.

LaPorte High School has been saddened by the death of five teachers who passed away while serving the school. Three of these fine teachers, Mrs. Eva Thompson Little, Miss Florence Barros and Miss Delpha Fern Brock, will always be remembered for their distinguished work in helping to develop the caliber of our English Department. Coach "Jack"

Steward, although with our school for only little over a year, was well on his way toward achieving an excellent reputation as a coach of outstanding teams. Mr. Eugene Pennington will be remembered for his many contributions to the Music Department. These teachers shall always be remembered for their sincere interest in the welfare of others.

actors were encouraged

Through the years the drama department has been one of the most successful branches of the English department. During the thirties, this department gained special recognition with the production of two musicals by Gilbert and Sullivan—H.M.S. Pinafore, 1931, and Pirates of Penzance, 1932. Miss Thelma Beesley, a member of the English department at this time, directed the speaking parts. Mrs. Lola Vawter, a representative from the music department, directed the students in the musical parts of these shows. This type of collaboration between the departments of music and drama was repeated by directors Miss Vera Kellogg and the late Gene Pennington when several operettas were produced. The Waltz Dream, (1945) and The Forest Prince (1950) were two of the most popular productions in our history of drama.

THE 1924 SENIOR CLASS PLAY "Cornered" was the first play presented in the new school. The cast members were, seated L. to R: Iris Bailey, Thelma Norris, Ray Fara, George Hupp, Mable Krueger. Standing: Ejnar Fridh, Bernice Doyle, Abe Smith, Gordon Keithline, Miss Deveda Deerhake, director; Lloyd Hutton, Winifred Earll, Joe Schelin.

drama has been varied

MISS HAZEL BROWN AND MISS ELEANOR MOORE directed the 1930 play The Swan. Seated: Florence Palm, Mary Jane Schumacher, Elva Kemp. Standing: Frances Sampson, Miss Hazel Brown, Miss Eleanor Moore, Wilbur Petering, Vernice McGrath, Marian Rasmussen, Fred Zimmerman, Mary Leahy, Durwood McDonald, Dorothy Hay, Sharon DeHaan, Mary Louise Lindgren, Ben Bortz, Jr., Mary Louise Decker, Don McCarty, John Mitchell.

PLAYERS Warren Beck, Lona Wood Reese, Imogene Ensley, Jack Pearson, Ruth Summers Nicklas, and Bob McCurdy did a fine job for their director, Miss Thelma Beesley, in the 1936 production of Girl Shy.

Under the able direction of such teachers as Miss Vera Kellogg, many outstanding plays have been presented in the high school auditorium. Among the best-known productions have been Lost Horizon (1953) and Our Town (1956). The Happiest Millionaire and Goodbye My Fancy, directed by Mr. Roger Munson, were very successful and well-known plays of a slightly different type.

Ever since the idea of producing plays was begun, there have been at least two productions every year. Originally, the fall play cast was limited to seniors and the the spring cast was for only juniors, but soon after Miss Kellogg's arrival try-outs were opened to all interested students.

In 1953, with the organization of the High School Players, a decision was made to spend forty percent of all the profits from plays for stage accessories such as lights and scenery. The room behind the stage became the property and scenery-painting room. Miss Kellogg and Mr. Munson have obtained a valuable collection of stage equipment.

GEORGE AND EMILY, portrayed by J. B. Hunt and Nada Schrum, were married by the Stage Manager, Bob Worrell, in this scene from Our Town, a 1956 production under the direction of Miss Vera Kellogg.

ELIZABETH, the Reverend Mr. Collins, and Charlotte, portrayed by Suzanne Clay, John Mitchell, and Dolores Mannia, seem to be having an interesting conversation in this scene from Miss Kellogg's 1951 production of Pride and Prejudice.

sports program was outstanding

The Athletic Department has been flourishing since school life began in the present building. Because of the able leadership of our coaches throughout the years, LaPorte High School now has a fine athletic record. This department has done much toward advancing the interest of its students in a physical-fitness program. Teams have participated in football, basketball, tennis, track, baseball, golf, swimming, wrestling, cross-country and hockey; the girls, also, once played intramural basketball and field hockey during the thirties. The present-day activity which corresponds to this is the Girls' Athletic Association. Because of this excellent participation in all sports, LaPorte High School has twice been awarded the coveted All-Sports Trophy. The following is a listing of our major accomplishments:

KENNY YOUNG—1930 State Award Winner.

The feature that has helped to make the social lives of students at LaPorte High so full is the great participation by the faculty and students in extra-curricular activities. Many of our clubs were organized years ago and others have been started more recently. The only official clubs in 1924 were the Hi-Y Club and the El-Y Club. The Junior Amateur Musical Club, sponsored by the senior group, was begun in 1924 to help promote good music. The year 1929 saw the organization of several groups including the Concert Glee Club and the Junior Red Cross. Girl Reserves, once a YMCA organization, became a school club in 1931. The first Mother and Daughter Dessert, now an annual affair, was in that same year. Presently, G. R. is the largest organization in LaPorte High. The Library Club, which was also organized in 1931, was formed to promote cooperation between the students and the library assistants. The group printed the News Noser.

THE SENIOR ACT in the 1946 May Daze featured a night out at "The Elephant Club."

Many students have been honored by membership in the National Honor Society, one of our oldest national organizations. Biology Club, now known as Bi Phi Chem Club, was started in 1943. Members of the United States Research Association, a unique group at LaPorte High, studied the geography and culture of islands. Creative Writing Club, the Student Forum, and the Riding and Swimming Clubs became very popular during the 1940's. The Stamp and Bond Committee and the Junior Red Cross worked very hard to help the war effort. There have been many other groups which have contributed to the full development and enjoyment of the students at LaPorte High School.

When one hears the term "Social Studies" at LPHS, it can mean several different courses. An elective of the sophomore year is the course of world history. The course covers prehistoric times to the Korean War. In the junior year, United States history is required. It begins with the colonization of America to the present time. The "American Observer" is very helpful with much of the current happenings of the world in it. Civics is the senior social study course which is also required. One studies the history and the present government of the United States. LPHS offers seniors three electives: economics, sociology, and international relations. Sociology deals with man, his problems and relations with people. In economics one can learn about the study of production, distribution, and consumption of goods. One of the newer courses in LPHS, international relations, is usually taken only by the more advanced students. It concerns chiefly the political change in China, Southeast Asia's present status, and the Russian Revolution.

Social studies builds citizenship

"Here," Pat Dunifon points out to her international relations class, "is one of many troublesome areas in the world."

Mr. Wayne Tarnow seems to be telling some of the facts of economics to Herb Hagenow.

Sidney Ridgeway learns that physics principles affect even the ringing of a doorbell.

Science taught

In LPHS it is required that every student take one year of science. One usually fulfills this requirement by taking biology in his freshman year. He then learns how to dissect frogs and worms and also how to use the microscope.

In the junior and senior year, students may take chemistry. Students learn to perform experiments that have been made famous by some of the well-known scientists. These experiments may be performed by oneself or with a lab partner. The chemistry classes have micro-size equipment which is a great advantage to the students in their work. College chemistry is also available to the students who wish to do advanced work.

Another course which the upper-class students

by investigation

may take is physics. In this course one studies the fundamentals of heat, sound, light, electricity, and matter. Electronics then may be taken if the student has completed satisfactorily the previous physics course.

Each year the science department sponsors the Science Fair. The fair is usually held in the Civic Auditorium in the spring. The local winners are asked to show their displays at the Valparaiso University Science Fair.

Membership in the Bi-Phi-Chem science club is offered to those students who find science very interesting. The club meets once a month when the guest speaker talks to the group on a subject pertaining to their study of science.

Tim McCarty and Joan Gipson investigate a dissected worm.

End of rotating English comp.,

Mrs. Mildred Goetze watches as Bill Retschlag uses arrows in his demonstration speech.

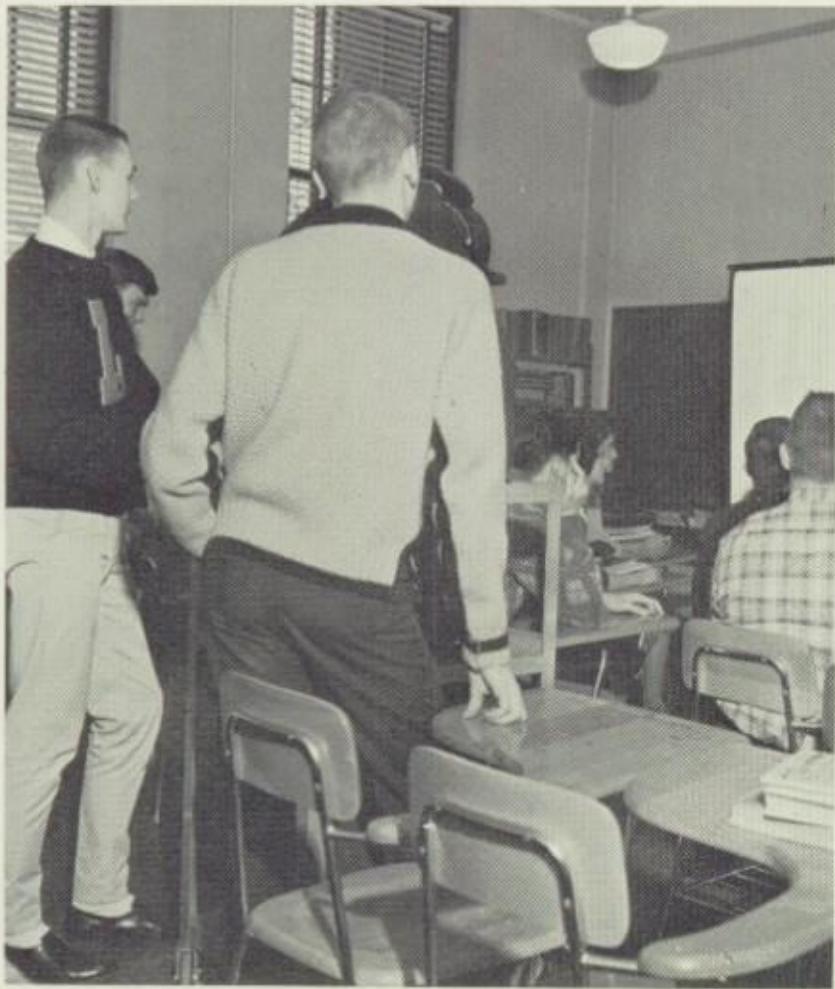

This year will be the last of the three-part or rotating English course in which composition, literature, and speech are each taken for six weeks in a semester. This schedule, required until the senior year, gives an automatic major in English. The senior year offers semester courses in composition, English literature, and modern literature. According to Mr. Linnemann, head of the English department, the new high school will have no rotating English.

Journalism courses and a chance for a position on the Hi-Times staff, the school newspaper, are offered. Mrs. Dorothy Vargas is the faculty advisor.

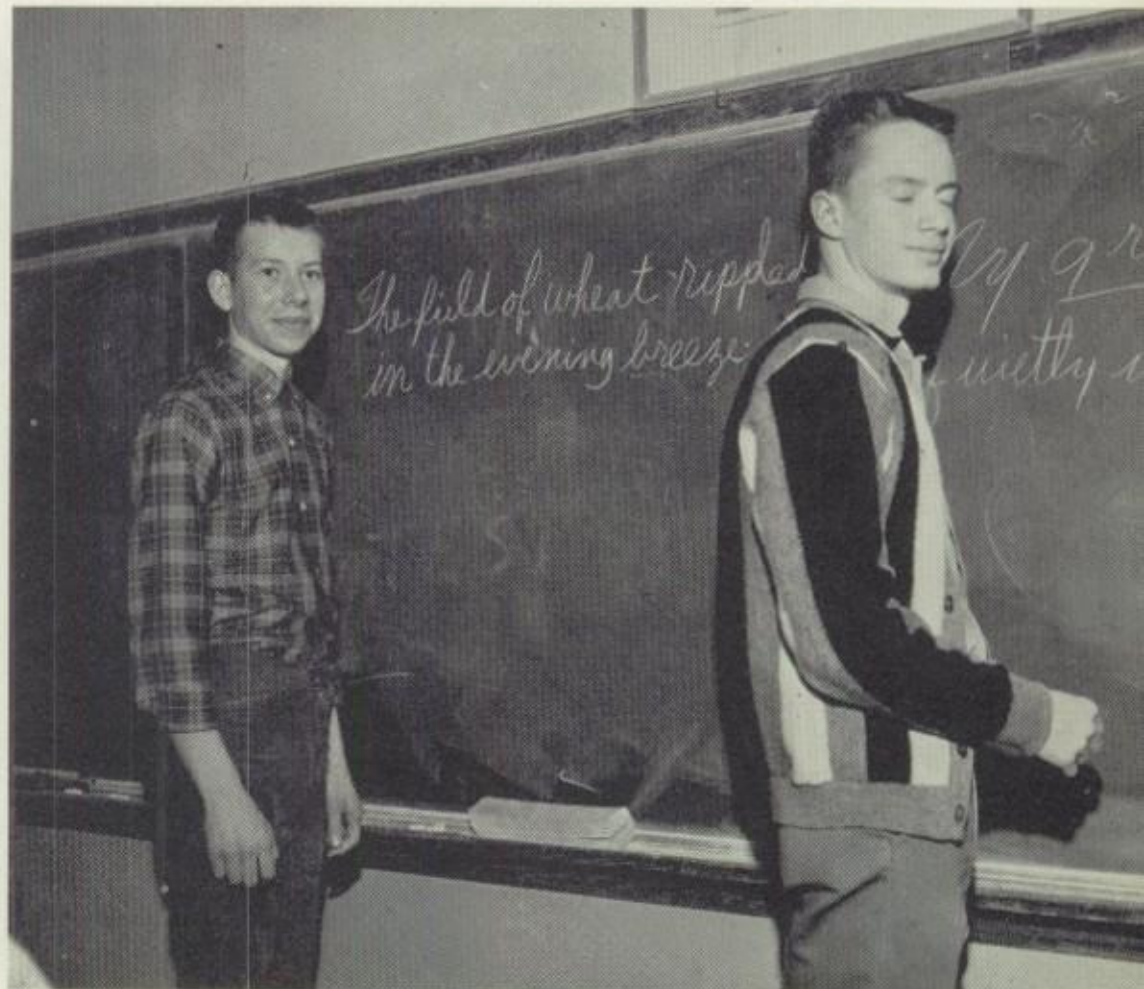

The El Pe staff, headed by Mr. Shannon Refett, offers students a chance to display their journalistic talents on the LPHS year book.

Mrs. Isobel Parker instructs her speed reading classes, not only in reading with speed, but also for understanding.

The school library, which is headed by Mrs. Alice Deputy and Mrs. Harriet Garrison, offers a limitless supply of information, not only for English, but for all classes.

lit., and speech

"A bull's-eye begins with one large circle and smaller circles inside it," explains Tony Bessegato.

"This is how you divide a line into equal parts," explains Lester Kamp to his geometry class.

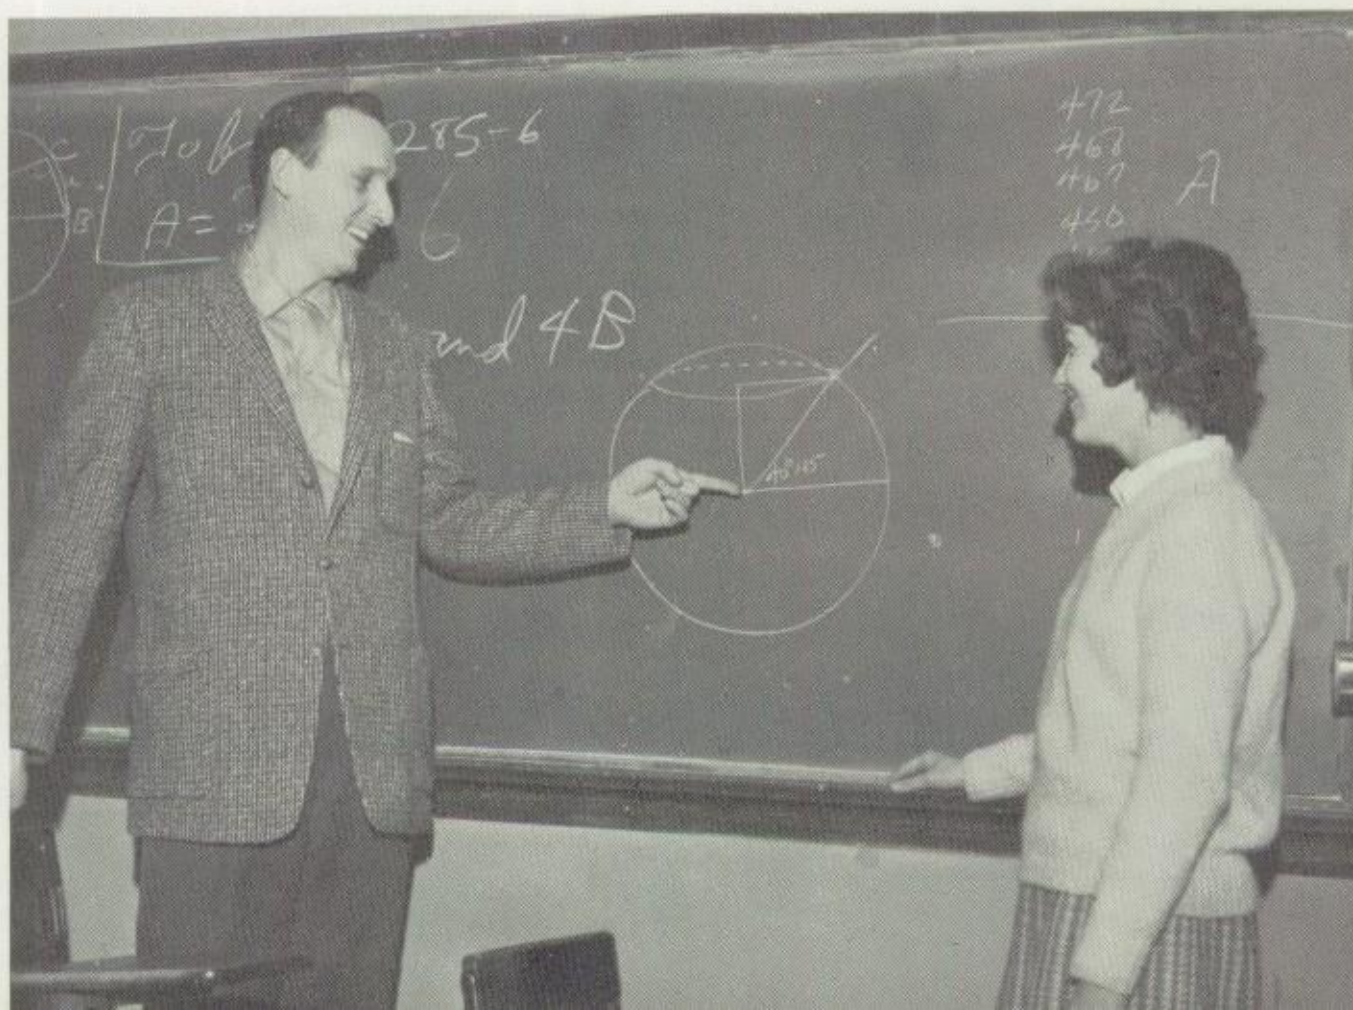

Dennis McConnell finds it is hard to take a test in the hall.

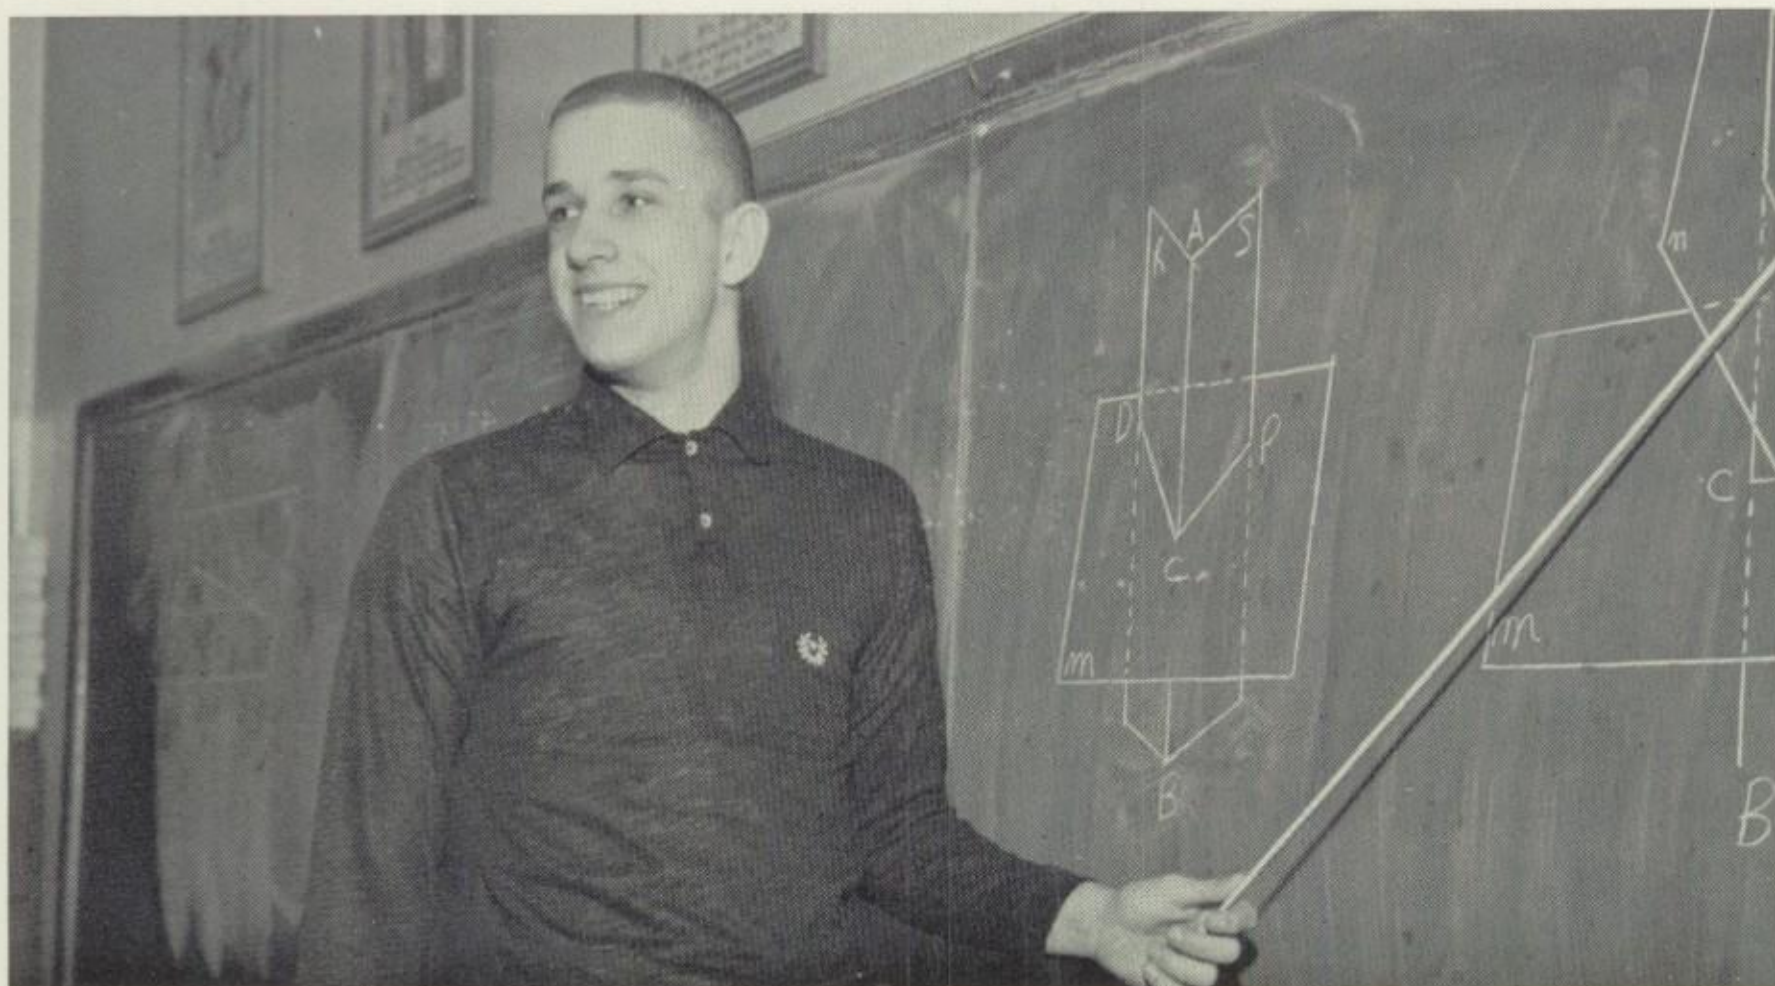

In the course of four years at LPHS a student is offered many different mathematic courses, most of which are electives.

In the freshman year, a student learns that he must choose which mathematics course to take. He may take general mathematics or algebra. In the first year of algebra, all of the basic fundamentals are taught. An accelerated freshman algebra is offered to those especially gifted in algebra.

Plane geometry is a course that is usually taken during the sophomore year. It deals mostly with flat surfaces. Advanced algebra is offered in the junior year. More complicated equations are found in the advanced algebra course; however, there is another choice of mathematics in the junior year. The alternative is solid geometry, which deals with three dimensional objects. This will be the last year solid geometry is offered. In the new school, enough solid geometry will be included in plane to eliminate the solid course. Exceptional students in mathematics are offered an accelerated course of advanced algebra.

Students in the senior year are able to study either trigonometry or college algebra. The two mathematic courses are usually taken by the college bound students who find them very helpful. Two special senior mathematic classes were added to the senior curriculum this year.

Every student's graduation requirement is to take at least one year of mathematics. Many students have found mathematics so beneficial in many of life's vocations, that they have taken much more than the required amount.

"The conjugation of 'ambulo' is an important one to remember," explains Mrs. Florence Gross to David Harris.

Foreign languages help our English

The slave sale is a well remembered part of all Latin Club initiations.

This is the first year in the history of LPHS that students have been able to take four years of a modern language. The modern languages are French, taught by Miss Dick and Mrs. Guyer, and Spanish by Mrs. Stevenson. Four years of Latin are still being offered by Miss Horne and Mrs. Gross, one of the new faculty members.

All of the elementary French classes are conducted entirely in French, except for several explanations in English. The students who take French learn to understand, read, and speak it even in the first year. In the advanced French classes, students have the opportunity to get acquainted with the well-known French authors.

Last year the French Club closed the season with a picnic which was so successful that the students are hoping to have another this year.

Students in the first year Spanish classes learn vocabulary and verb forms. As the students advance from year to year, they learn of the Middle Ages and the Renaissance in Spain, read books by famous Spanish authors, and also learn the art of speaking Spanish.

Last summer a Spanish student was fortunate enough to go to Argentina. Spanish students are busy finding ways of earning money to send some deserving student to Mexico. Their main project for the Amigos Program was the selling of candy.

LPHS has always had four years of Latin. The Latin teachers stress connections between the Latin and the English language. Students enrich the understanding of their own language through the study of Latin. The advanced classes contain Caesar, Vergil, and Cicero. Caesar is usually taught in the second year and then Cicero and Vergil in the third and fourth.

Mrs. Marian Guyer points out to Tim Hollingsworth that the tape recorder is important in French class.

Martha Henderson leads her class in classroom singing, a part of every day for Spanish students.

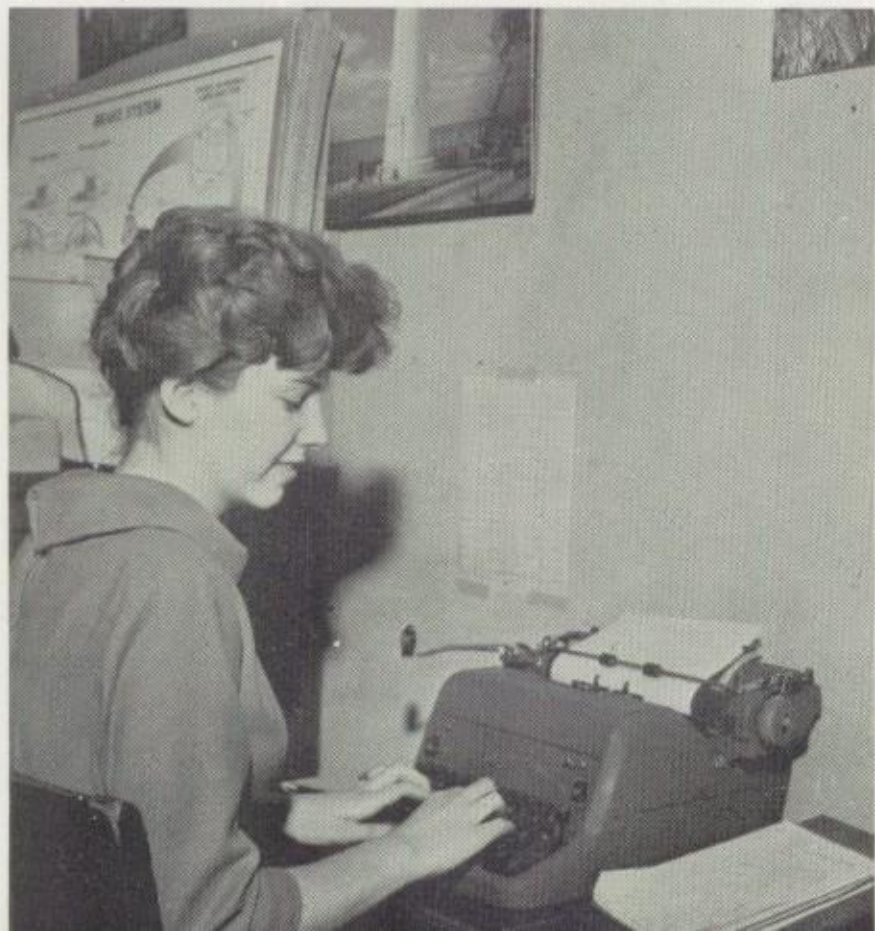

While the rest of her business law class studies, Arlene Hubner's attention wanders to her purse.

Mary Jo Bolster makes use of the dictaphone for short-hand class while Linda Lange, Marsha Munson, and Kay Sommers do other work.

Kathy Bell, who works in Mr. Schulze's office, is one of the girls who is obtaining valuable office practice.

Commerce builds

On the second floor of the annex is the commercial department. A wide variety of commercial courses are offered for those who plan to enter the business world.

The general business course includes record keeping, banking, and insurance. This course is generally taken by freshmen and introduces them to the different aspects of business. Bookkeeping teaches good financial practices as well as how to keep accurate records. Business law is the study of cases and solutions.

Typing is one of the most valuable courses for all students. The fundamentals are taught during the first year, and the application of these is taught in the second year. Shorthand is also taught for those who are interested in secretarial work. This is similar to typing as the fundamentals are taught the first year and the application of them is taught the second. There are also some opportunities for girls to work under school administrators in the school offices. This gives the students actual experience in the commercial field.

The commercial courses are aimed at making students better consumers and better producers. LPHS students graduating with majors in the commercial courses have a good background for a position in the business world.

Vocational

The home economics classes are under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Dring. Her classes are responsible for the mouth-watering smells coming from the school kitchens all day. The students learn more than food preparation. They also learn how to plan a balanced diet and the proper entertaining etiquette. Mrs. Betty Jane Schwarz is the head of another section in the vocational department—the sewing department. Her students study fabric designing, clothing construction, effective use of color and personal appearance, and even interior decorating.

A home nursing course is also offered in the home economics classes. Home nursing teaches the fundamentals of caring for the sick at home especially in emergencies. This course is a very important one for all students.

Future Nurses of America, headed by Mrs. Aline Baughman, gain experience by working in the office of the school nurse. They visit and assist in the hospitals.

Cadet teaching is offered to those students interested in entering the educational field.

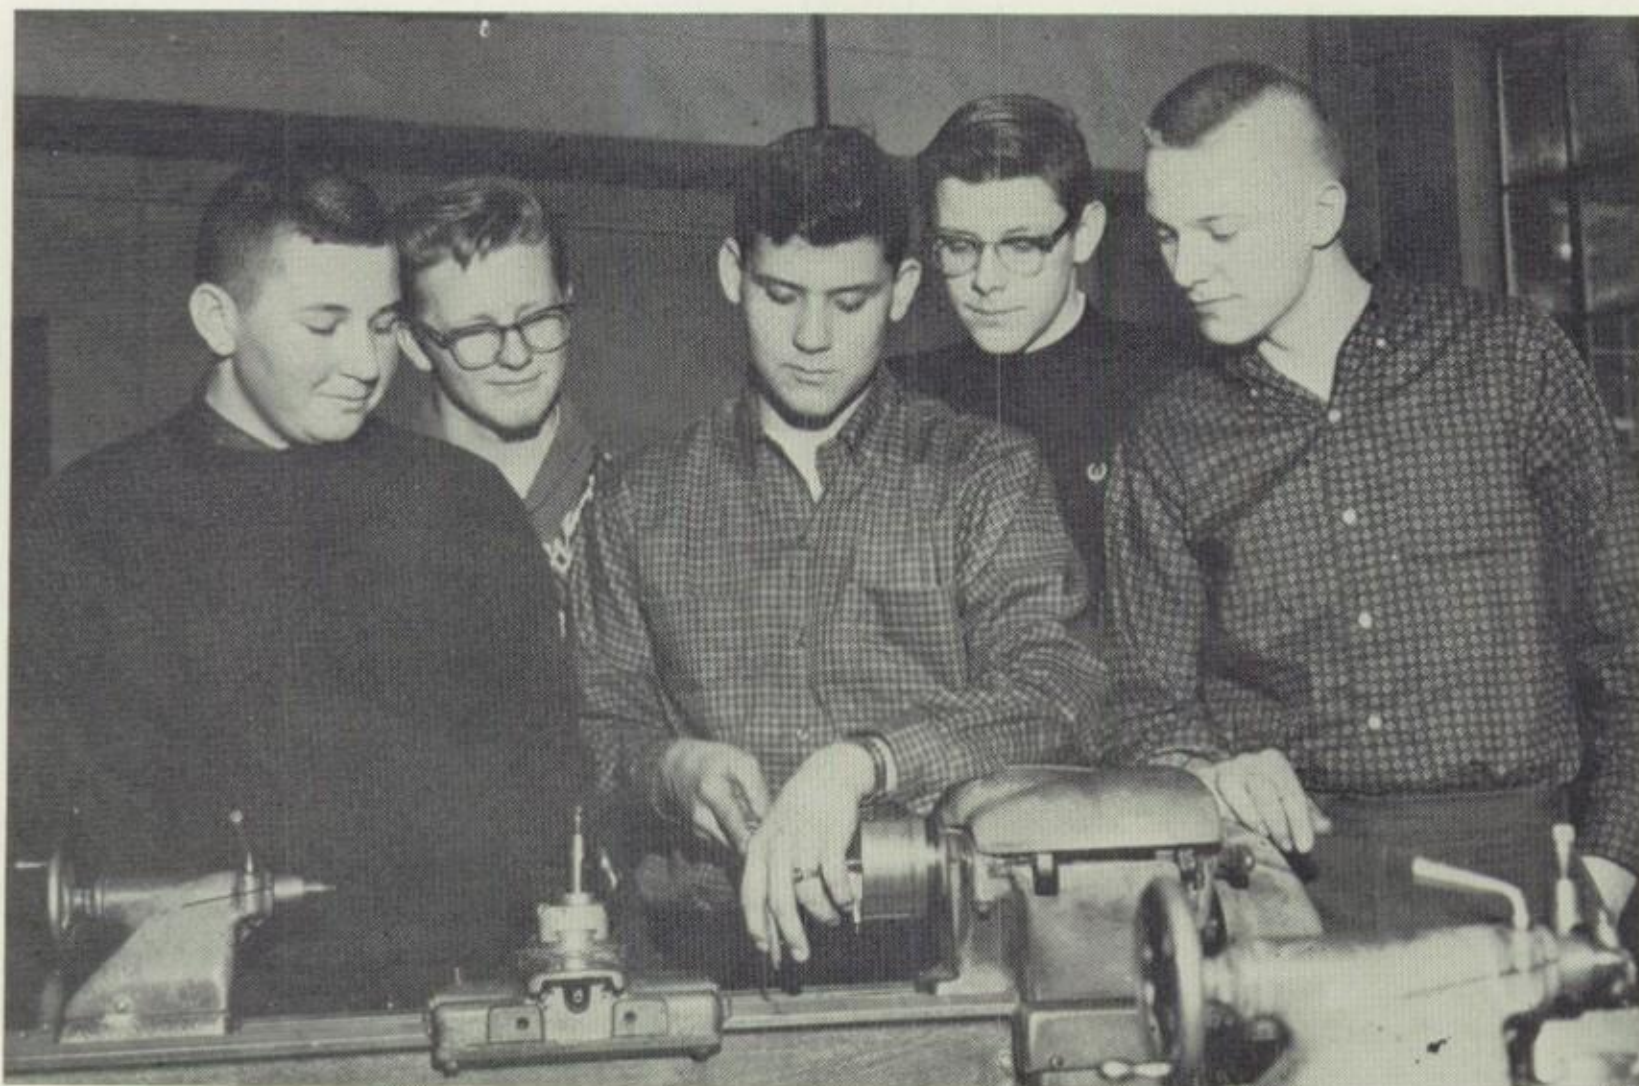

The industrial arts department offers six different courses. These classes are found in the annex. Print shop teaches graphic reproductions. This class is often the source of tickets and programs for school functions. Machine shop teaches working with metal and working with other machines. The proper use of both hand and power tools is taught and used in wood shop in making simple wood constructions. Blueprinting teaches the fundamentals of reading blueprints accurately to students. Architectural drawing points out the proper technique of drawing simple plans and elevations. The basic fundamentals of drafting are taught in mechanical drafting. Along with the basic fundamentals, these classes teach the value of work, self-reliance, and initiative, and teaches students to work together skillfully. Mr. Henry Schulze, the head of the industrial arts department, is also in charge of the audio-visual department.

Gym, art, drivers' training

For many years two years of physical education, usually taken in the freshman and sophomore years, have been required for graduation. In the new school both sophomore and junior classes will be required to take physical education. Both boys' and girls' classes participate in volleyball, tumbling, basketball, and the trampoline. In the spring and fall, as long as the weather is good, students run to Kiwanis Field for baseball, tennis, and track events. In the spring a track meet is held for the class winners in each track event. This year gym classes went to the Y.M.C.A. swimming pool for swimming instructions. Seniors interested in physical education may elect to assist the gym teachers in classes. The physical education department then chooses those most qualified to help.

requirement, may be taken anytime during a student's high school career. The circulatory, respiratory, and nerve systems, all parts of the body, and some first aid measures are studied. Physiology is also offered to those interested in continuing study in this field.

Drivers' training is an elective lasting nine weeks. Drivers' training is usually taken to alternate with a study hall, physical education class, or glee club. The school's cars all have automatic transmission. Classes, composed of a qualified instructor and three students, gives careful, safe instruction.

Art classes provide an outlet for the creative instincts of students. In the spring and fall, classes are held outdoors. Students learn art appreciation, drawing techniques, poster design, ceramics work, and displays.

Two jurors (Kay Harrer and Jean Magnuson) reenact the murder while Louie Ingersoll, Kaaren Currier, and Joyce Murdock watch.

The question of guilt was posed in the play "Twelve Angry People" by Reginald Rose presented on April 21 and 22, 1961. Mr. Munson directed the play with the help of Ann Guyer and Virginia Block, student directors. Bill Bard was the production manager. He also played the part of the guard in the play.

The scene of the play was a jury room in any large city at the present time after a long and tedious six day trial on a hot day. An eighteen year old boy from the slums had been accused of stabbing his father to death. All evidence pointed to the boy.

The jury took their first vote under the direction of the foreman (Bruce Hootman). Eleven voted guilty and one not guilty. The juror voting not guilty (Frank Zila) was a thoughtful quiet man, who saw all sides of a question and would fight for the truth.

It was hot, the jurors were tired of being in court, and they wanted to go home. Tempers flared. Most of the jurors felt that it was an open and shut case and this one vote contrary to their opinions was not necessary. One of the jurors (Kathy Williams) especially opposed his ideas. She was intolerant of others' opinions and became quite angry.

The other jurors (Sandy Garr, Jean Magnuson, Carolyn Kinsey, Sidney Ridgeway, Kay Harrer, Louie Ingersoll, Tarry Davis, Kaaren Currier, and Joyce Murdock) said that they felt all evidence pointed to the boy.

The one opposing juror proceeded to seemingly disprove the evidence. He brought out a knife exactly like the murder weapon proving anyone could buy a similar knife. He proved that the old man who saw the boy run down the steps could not have walked to his front door in the time he said he did. Similarly, he pointed out flaws in the other evidence. The jury discovered that guilty does mean "beyond a reasonable doubt." They judged the boy not guilty.

Ed Keller (Bill Bard) tries to point out to Tommy the mistake of reading the letter.

Tommy (Doug Braidwood) reads to Patricia Stanley (Kathy O'Donnell), Ellen (Sheila Gracie), and Ed Keller (Bill Bard).

The home of professor Tommy Turner and his wife Ellen was the scene of the fall play, "The Male Animal," by James Thurber and Elliot Nugent. It was presented November 17 and 18, 1961, and directed by Miss Vera Kellogg. Student directors were Mary Post and Robert Sandifur.

Tommy Turner (Doug Braidwood) had been living a quiet life while teaching at Mid-Western University. He and his wife Ellen (Sheila Gracie) had been married ten years.

Interrupting this quiet life comes Joe Ferguson (Tarry Davis), who is in town to see the Michigan game. Besides being the greatest football hero Mid-Western ever had, he also had been Tommy's rival for Ellen's affections. Joe seems to sweep Ellen off her feet again.

Patricia Stanley (Kathy O'Donnell), Ellen's sister, lives with them while going to Mid-Western. She has two rival boyfriends: Wally Meyers (Bill Angrick), the now famous Mid-Western football star, and Michael Barnes (John Hart), an intellectual. Michael Barnes wrote an article in a literary magazine in which he calls the board of trustees "Fascists." He also tells of Tommy's plan to read a Vanzotti letter in class.

The board of trustees, especially Ed Keller (Bill Bard), tries to persuade Tommy not to read the letter. They are so busy yelling they can not even listen to an idea. Although Dean Damon (Michael Baumer) agrees with Tommy, his wife (Dianne Dinwiddie) and the board silences him.

Even Ellen tries to persuade Tommy not to read the letter. Ellen's persuasion along with Joe's forces Tommy to ask her to go with Joe. He wants to be left to his books and principles.

Eventually Tommy challenges Joe to a fist fight for Ellen and his principles after he is fortified with the proper courage. Also fortified, Michael Barnes challenges Wally Meyers for Patricia and his principles. Although both lose the initial fight, they win what they wanted. Tommy refuses to deny that he will read the letter and decides to stick by his principles. Ellen sees he is a pretty good example of the male animal and stands by him.

Geraldine Holmes and Beatrice Komkommer, as maids, and Ellen Friedrich, Jim Houston, and Robert Sandifur were included in the cast.

The five students sent to Purdue as members of the Purdue Legislature left on a Friday afternoon and returned Saturday evening. Kent Oakes was in the Senate, and Jean Magnuson Bill Angrick, Michael Baumer, and Jack Roth were in the House of Representatives, the last three getting in the state's top ten. Paul Rumely won the Richard Rowe Award, LaDonna Johnson the Ned Travis Award, and Carl Fischer, Terry Frank, and Mike Purvis the Richard Hult Award.

The Dance Band played for B.S.C. "Lights and Music Volume VI."

Lights and Music - - - 1962

Boys' Service Club presented "Lights and Music Volume VI" on January 22, 1962. The theme of the 1962 performance was "Something Old, Something New, Something Borrowed, Something Blue." Kent Oakes and Randy Wollert were the narrators for the evening. Sandra Sies was the 1962 Miss Lights and Music.

The LaPorte High School Dance Band provided the music for the evening. Rosalie Piasecki, the Dance Band vocalist, entertained with such songs as "The Man That Got Away" and "The Birth of the Blues." John Chalick, another vocalist, offered his rendition of "Cecilia." Jim Barkow, Tom Milo, and Greg Roberts had instrumental solos. Our own version of the Kingston Trio was the Swingston Trio. The members of the Boys' Service Club worked up several skits presented during the evening, including the Four Stooges, Mitch Miller, Charley Weaver, and other skits. The applause signified it was a crowd-pleaser.

The Pepper Club spells out L.P.

Pepper club helped to boost spirit

This year's Pepper Club officers were Pennie Christle, vice president; Dianne Struss, secretary; Ann Campbell, treasurer; and Gail Tonsoni, president.

For the first time the Pepper Club had enough members to occupy two sections at the Civic Auditorium. Miss Judy Kay Wood was the advisor for the club. At an organizational meeting held early in the fall Gail Tonsoni was elected president, Pennie Christle vice-president, Ann Campbell treasurer, and Dianne Struss secretary. The size of the club presented more problems with seating than usual. Each week the club alternately spelled out a black L.P. on a white background or a white L.P. on a black background. All members wore white gloves. Each basketball game a different group of girls was chosen to make the hoop through which the team runs at the beginning of the basketball game. The varsity cheerleaders taught the Pepper Club new cheers and the accompanying hand motions.

When our team comes marching in!

The freshmen class chose Diane Bernacchi, Karen Salek, and the Uhlemann twins—Carol and Donna—to cheer their teams on to victory. The freshmen cheerleaders attended only the in-town freshmen football and basketball games.

The reserve cheerleaders for this year, chosen by the entire student body, were Janet Bard, Karen Boklund, Karen Lee, and Penny Scholl. The reserve cheerleaders attended the in-town football and basketball games and some of the out-of-town basketball games. They worked with the Pepper Club at the reserve basketball games.

Freshmen cheerleaders—Donna Uhlemann, Diane Bernacchi, Karen Salek, Carol Uhlemann.

Go, fight, win!

The girls who wish to become varsity cheerleaders practice for several weeks with other girls wanting the same position. A few members of the faculty and the seniors on the cheerleading squad vote and reduce the group to twelve or fifteen. These girls then try out in front of the student body. This year the students elected Ladonna Johnson, Patsy Miller, Diane Bienas, Janet Edington, Pam Lytle and Marti Sweitzer to represent L.P.H.S. and to cheer our teams on to victory. Miss Judy Kay Wood was the faculty advisor for the squad. The girls are planning to go to cheerleading camp this summer.

This year, boy cheerleaders were added. Harold Hesselrode, Danny Poe, and Scott Baker contributed their acrobatics to the cheering.

At the out-of-town games our pep band, the Razor Straps, helped to keep spirit high.

Homecoming

LaPorte High School's Homecoming was on a typical autumn evening, October 20, 1961. The larger clubs and organizations spent hours of hard work making floats and entered them in the Homecoming parade. Other groups decorated cars and trucks. The parade began at six o'clock in front of the high school and continued to Kiwanis Field. Before the football game a pep session heightened the students spirits.

La Porte defeated Penn High School, 34-6. At halftime the parade passed in front of the stands. The trophy for the best float was awarded to the Pepper Club float. The senior girls received the trophy for their truck. The nine girls up for Homecoming queen were escorted onto the field by members of Boys' Service Club. Randy Wollert, Pep Committee chairman, crowned LaDonna Johnson as the 1961 Homecoming queen. Diane Bienas and Marti Sweitzer were members of her court.

The senior girls, who entered their "victory" truck in the parade, won the trophy for the best decorated car.

Manhattan - - Gay

"Midnight in Manhattan" created an air of festivity for couples at the 1961 Junior-Senior Prom. A little rainy weather failed to dampen the spirits and excitement of the prom-goers as many happy couples attended pre-prom parties.

Couples entered the Civic Auditorium under a huge marquee announcing "Midnight in Manhattan." Seated in a mock band shell, the band, led by Phil Reed, played soft music for dancing. Refreshments were served all evening.

Part of the sides was intricately covered with trees giving it a look of famous Central Park. Tall buildings and skyscrapers which simulated downtown Manhattan covered another section of the side walls. The spacious floor was flooded by soft blue lights. The beautifully decorated tables around the auditorium were dotted with miniature lampposts and park benches on which tiny couples were seated.

As the evening progressed, Becky Kostka, Jon Ford, Karen Jasinowski, Sidney Ridgeway, John Thomson, and Jim Bridges were found chatting under the marquee.

One of the highlights of the evening was the Grand March, as Junior Class President Willy Lubs escorted Queen Jill Phillips across the floor.

Scene of Prom

About 11:30 Willy Lubs, Junior Class President, crowned Jill Phillips as the 1961 Prom Queen. Her throne was a huge glittering half moon set against a background of the Manhattan skyline. After the dance all couples were taken to the LaPorte Theater in new cars furnished by the new car dealers. After the interviews in a Hollywood premier fashion by Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Westphal, all the couples viewed the first showing of "The Young Savages."

When the couples returned to the Civic for the post-prom activities, a huge buffet dinner and dancing awaited them. The auditorium had been transformed into a night club which featured several acts. Pictures were taken and various gifts were given away.

The weeks of work and worry seemed to fade away; even sunburns lasting for weeks did not matter. The fun and happiness of the big weekend will always be remembered.

"Even happy prom-goers' feet get tired," says Susan Blankschein to her date John Laramore.

The major auxiliary organization of the high school is the Student Council. This group works to bring the wishes of the student body to the attention of the faculty, to make recommendations and to help direct the co-operation of the student body in improving the school.

This year the student body witnessed a re-organization of the Student Council. For the first time, each class elected an allotted number of members to Student Council. This made the group smaller and more compact so they could easily get to the heart of school matters.

The responsibilities of the Student Council during the regular school year are carried out by the Assembly, Building, Projects, Elections, and Pep Committees. Each representative of the organization is assigned to work on one of these committees. The major responsibility of the Building Committee is to see that the building is kept as neat as possible. The Pep Committee plans all the pep sessions and attempts to increase school spirit among the students. The Assembly Committee serves the school by planning all the convocations for Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter, and by arranging other educational assemblies throughout the year. The Election Committee is in charge of the Student Council elections in the spring and the various class elections held each fall.

Each year, as its major project, this group sponsors several money-making projects which enable the school to sponsor a foreign student through the American Field Service Plan. This year the Council sold Swiss-style felt hats in school colors, and Slicer auto license plates. Last spring, the group sponsored a fish fry that proved to be very successful. As this year's special projects the Council sponsored a semi-formal dance based on a Valentine's Day theme, and a special play presented by the faculty. Mr. Wayne Tarnow is the sponsor.

Mr. Tarnow, Sandy Sies, and Penny Scholl discuss a Student Council problem.

Honors come to Stimulating a desire to render service, promoting leadership, creating enthusiasm for scholarship, and developing character are the purposes of the National Honor Society. If a person is in the upper third of his class and has spent at least one semester in LaPorte High School, he is a candidate for this honor. The faculty votes on the upper third; then the principal and six teachers make the final vote.

Three girls and five boys are chosen in the spring of their junior year by the faculty to attend the Girls' and Boys' State which is held during the summer at Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana. These boys and girls represent the high school at this governmental function. By participating in elections and holding public offices, these students learn the fundamentals of government.

The Senior Girl Representatives are chosen in the fall by their classmates. These girls represent the senior class at two women's clubs of LaPorte—the American Association of University Women and Women's Literary. By attending the meetings of these clubs, the girls learn the purposes and functions of each organization. Miss Thelma Beesley, Dean of Girls, is sponsor of this select group.

At the beginning of the year the senior class chose thirty-seven Senior Boy Representatives. These boys represent their class at the meetings of LaPorte service clubs. Each boy attends dinner meetings once each week for a month at either the Lions', Rotary, or Kiwanis Clubs. The boys become acquainted with the various duties of these club members who help to make LaPorte a better city in which to live.

Miss Kellogg, Mrs. Goetze, and Mr. Munson are the sponsors of Tau Sigma Chi, an honorary speech organization which furthers speech activities. The members are elected for excellent work in such fields as radio work, debate, stage work, and the school plays. After the fall play and again following the spring play, an impressive candlelight initiation is held.

In the spring the club made its annual excursion to Chicago to see a play enacted by professional actors.

The National Forensic League is an organization dedicated to furthering and improving speech activities. Participants in the various speech activities may become members when they have earned twenty-five points. The group planned to attend several lectures during the year to observe the merits of different speakers. Some of the members attended a speech week-end at Northwestern University where they competed for honors with students from several surrounding states.

developed our interest in speech and drama

To develop logical thinking, to gain poise before an audience, and to correct research techniques are some of the many purposes of debate.

The LaPorte High School Debate team is a member of the Indiana High School Forensic Association, the National Forensic League, and the Metropolitan Debate Union. These organizations provide competition with many Indiana and Illinois schools. Any person who is interested is invited to join the group.

Again this year LaPorte was represented in an Invitational Debate Tournament presented by the Public Affairs Department of WBBM-TV and the School of Speech of Northwestern University. Thirty-two schools were selected by elimination to participate on television during the winter, and the final elimination took place during the spring of the year. Jack Roth and Mike Baumer represented LaPorte on the televised debate.

A team of LaPorte High School debaters gave a demonstration debate at Purdue University during the annual Purdue Legislative Assembly for high school students.

In January the varsity debaters attended a debate clinic at the University of Illinois which proved to be highly competitive. To raise money for the debate trips they sponsored the concessions at the Saturday night games.

"Parlez-vous français?" To give the students an additional opportunity to use French, each student in French Club is required to speak only French at all meetings.

The programs consist of games, skits, musical entertainment, slides, and occasionally a speaker addresses the group about France.

To study about Spanish-speaking countries, to help students speak Spanish better, and to know more about language are some of the purposes of the Spanish Club.

Once a month this club meets and gives the members an opportunity to speak Spanish. The meeting is also conducted in Spanish.

understanding through language

The purpose of the Latin Club is to gain a more thorough knowledge of the Roman life, history, and literature, and to better understand the practical and cultural value of Latin.

Each year the club holds a sale of slaves who are the initiates. These initiates serve as slaves for their masters for one day at school, and they attend the Roman Banquet where they serve the old members of the club.

During the year the club sponsored a bake sale in November and a dance. The money obtained from these projects was used for a scholarship offered to a senior who intends to further his study of Latin in college.

Clubs inspire

Acquainting the members of Future Teachers of America with the various aspects of teaching is the purpose of this club.

During Education Week the club gives each member of the school personnel an apple in appreciation of his work. In October the club held a record hop to raise money for a scholarship. In the spring the club awards this scholarship to a senior future teacher.

Girls interested in personal and community health join Future Nurses of America to learn the requirements and opportunities offered in a nursing career. The club sponsored a spring dance to help raise money for a nursing scholarship for a senior member of Future Nurses, took trips to surrounding schools of nursing, and were hostesses for a party for the patients of Beatty Memorial Hospital.

preparations

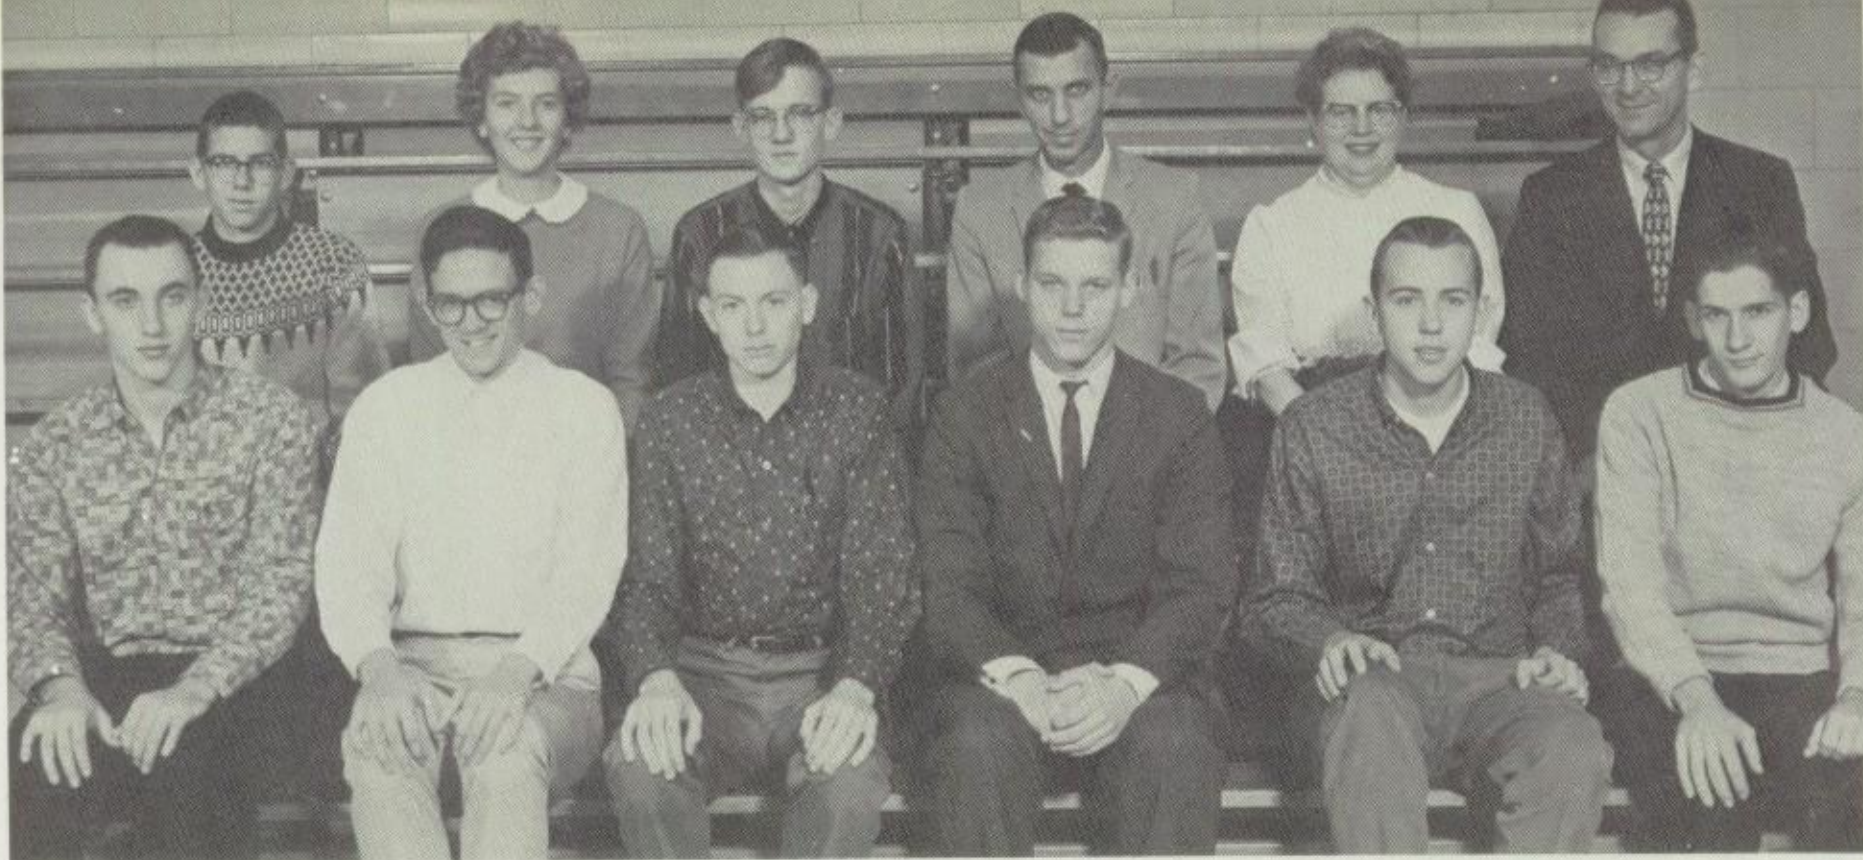

Quill and Scroll is an international honor society for high school journalists. In order to be a candidate for membership in the Dorothy Dick chapter of Quill and Scroll, there are two qualifications that the La Porte High School journalism student must have. He must be in the junior or senior class, and he has to be in the upper third of his class. The final selection of applications is made on a nation-wide basis.

So they may help others, the members of the Student Library Assistants learn the proper procedures of the library.

Each fall the members of the Hoosier Student Library Association attend the meeting at Indiana University, and in the spring of this year they attended the Northern Indiana Hoosier Student Library Association Conference at Penn High School. The club sold jewelry to raise money.

In an effort to promote the scientific interests of its members, Bi-Phi-Chem helped to support and operate the Science Fair, which is held each year to display the science projects made by the members. Monthly meetings are held at which a guest speaker from a university or local industry comes to speak to the club. The club is sponsored by Miss Gourley, Mr. Bernard, Mr. Fisher, and Mr. Johnson.

To stimulate more interest in local history and to further international understanding are two of the purposes of the Social Studies Club.

The club is making a study of the participation of LaPorteans in the Civil War. They also presented a Thanksgiving program and helped finance the Purdue Legislative Assembly. Miss Frankie Jones is the sponsor of the club.

The purpose of the Junior Red Cross is to promote friendship and understanding among the young people of the world.

Each year a campaign for raising funds is conducted. This money is used for such projects as: a school chest filled with school supplies to be sent overseas, gifts for the people at the County Farm and the hospitals, contributions to the Junior Red Cross National Children's Fund, and favors for the hospitals.

For girls who enjoy participating in sports events, the Girls' Athletic Association sponsors many such events for its members. Most of the activities are intramural in nature. The program is varied with such activities as archery, softball, basketball, bowling, and volleyball. Many times the La Porte G.A.A. will have meetings and hold contests with girls from other schools. Each member may win an award by participating in these sports events.

GR promotes friendship

Many holidays were represented at the initiation.

Any girl who is a member of the sophomore, junior, or senior class may become a member of the Girl Reserves, which is the largest organization in the school. This club is a social one to promote a friendly feeling among all the girls. In addition, it gives service and charity each year to the community and school.

During the year the members have many opportunities to sign for group and committee work in a wide variety of interests. Some of the major projects in the past have been: working at the office of the LaPorte County Tuberculosis Association and contributing to the Red Cross, assisting financially in youth welfare, making favors for local hospitals on special days, managing the basketball concession stands, ushering, and helping to give the freshmen "Get-together" parties.

The initiation of the sophomore girls was held in October. These girls were dressed to represent the different holidays. During this meeting the initiates had to perform certain designated stunts before the rest of the members.

Service is the GR motto

The G R members must earn one service point in order to be able to attend each of the club's two main social events—the G R Formal and the Mother-Daughter Dessert. "Wonderland by Night," the theme of the formal, was held on December 16. The many couples danced under the balloon covered ceiling of the National Guard Armory, while a snow laden Christmas tree glistened in the background. Each table was decorated with an attractive angel as the centerpiece.

Karen Naue and Joe Sutor are typical of the many couples who attended the Formal.

We paid tribute to our outstanding boys

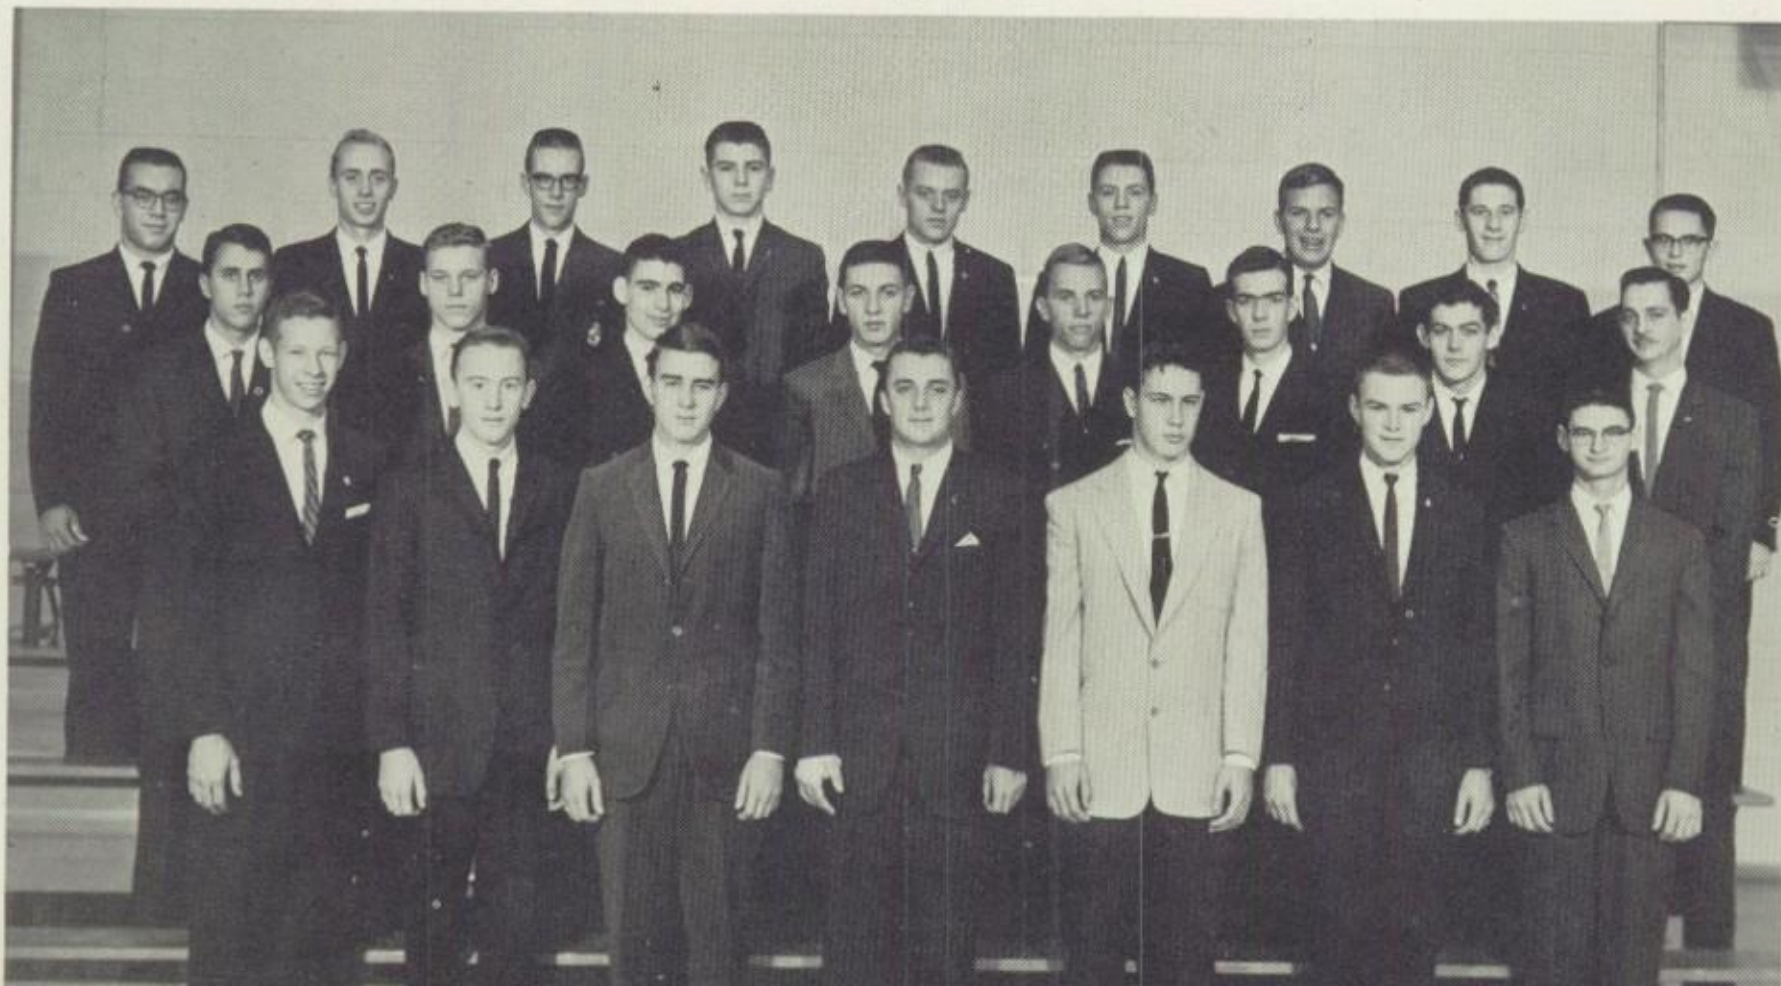

The Lettermen's Club, as its main purposes, raises funds in order to secure some facility to support the sports department of the school and boosts the morales of the letter winners by having them acquire a sense of belonging to an organization that works for the benefit of all.

Throughout the school year this club sponsored their annual Lettermen's basketball game, and also a bowling tournament. Mr. Earl Dola-way is the faculty advisor for this group.

The members of the Boys' Service Club work closely with the school and community administration on school and civic affairs. These boys are given the opportunity to develop leadership potential by working with community leaders in various service projects.

During the year, the Boys' Service Club presented its annual musical show, "Lights and Music," and they were co-sponsored with the Student Council in raising funds for the AFS student.

Girls' Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Ted Klinka, prepares its members for the A Cappella Choir. Seventy sophomore and junior students make up the membership of this choral organization. The group took part in the Christmas concert and the spring concert. They also took part in the Four-City Choral Festival. One-half credit is given toward graduation.

Mixed Chorus is open to all students who are sincerely interested in choral work. The Chorus is a one-half credit course and alternates with gym classes. The group performed at the Christmas and spring concerts. After two semesters work in Mixed Chorus, students can become members of Girls' Chorus. Mr. Ted Klinka is the director of this choral organization.

outstanding entertainment

The twenty-four select vocalists of the Swing Choir are chosen each spring from the members of A Cappella Choir. The group is classified as an extra-curricular activity with no credit given toward graduation.

Besides performing for many civic clubs in La Porte county, the group is in demand by many cities throughout the state. Mr. Ted Klinka is the director of this popular singing group.

The purposes of the Modern Music Masters are to serve the community and school through various musical projects and to encourage better and more discriminating habits in listening to and in the performance of musical literature.

The officers attended the National Convention in Park Ridge, Illinois in March, and the group had a banquet in May. Mr. Guy Foreman and Mr. Ted Klinka are the sponsors.

A Cappella made TV debut

Kay Harrer and Elaine Rosenbaum rehearse for their duet.

Sandra Watt, the featured soloist for the Christmas Assembly.

Our largest advanced chorus organization at L.P.H.S. is the A Cappella Choir. For the most part the group consists of upperclassmen who have been members of Mixed Chorus and Girls' Chorus. The choir performs for a variety of audiences throughout the year. The members of A Cappella are trained in both the performance and the appreciation of good music.

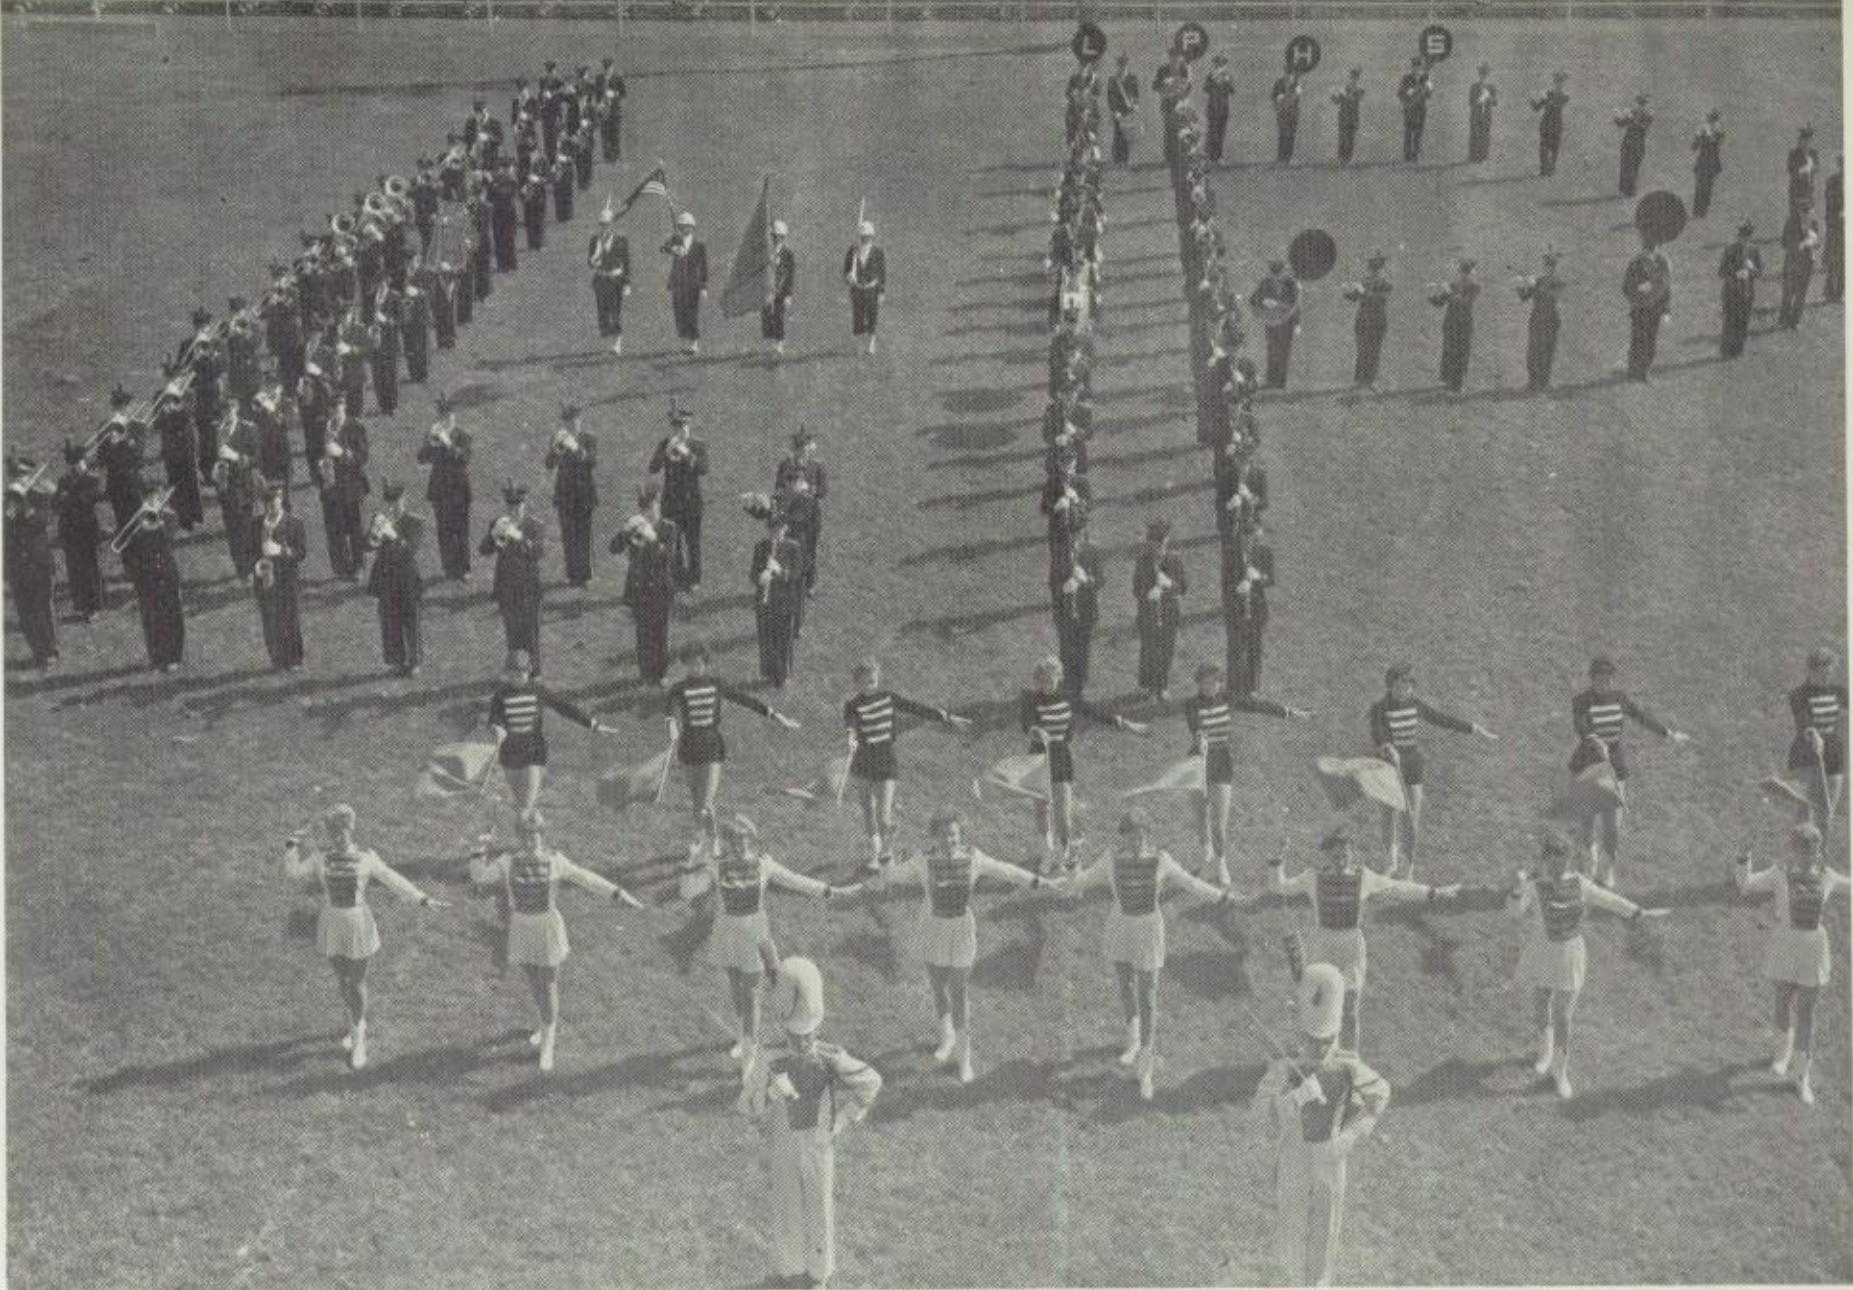

In February the A Cappella Choir performed on a half hour television choral program on Channel 11 in Chicago. It was an interesting and educational experience for them.

The choir performed before the student body at the Thanksgiving, Christmas, and the Easter convocations, in addition to the regular concerts that the group took part in during the year.

Under the direction of Mr. Ted Klinka the choir participated in the Four City Music Festival in the spring. This year, as in the past, A Cappella maintained high standards.

Mr. Klinka, Gail Tonsoni, and Ralph Vogel discuss some of the music that A Cappella presented on television.

LaPorte High School marching band strikes a familiar formation.

The majorettes, who perform at many football and basketball games, were led by Drum Majors Don Jones and Doug Collins. Some of the girls presented fire baton performances.

The Color Guard marches in several parades, and also present the colors at home football and basketball games. They presented the colors at several school assemblies. Mr. Guy Foreman is the director of these groups.

The LPHS Marching Band performs before the home football games and during the half time. The band also marches in the community's several parades, including the annual Fourth of July Parade. The group practiced their formations daily in the fall at Kiwanis Field. The members are chosen from the regular school band.

A new addition to the band this year were the flag twirlers with their precision formations.

The Concert Band of a hundred and five members is a fully accredited class in La Porte High School with the students earning one full credit during the semester. The group presented a formal concert in the latter part of April.

The Dance Band was organized for the purpose of training high school musicians in the field of jazz and popular music. As a stage band the group "brought down the house" playing before a general session of the Indiana State Teachers' Convention in October in South Bend.

The purpose of the La Porte High School Orchestra is to provide a group in which the members can study and perform the classical literature written by the great composers of the past and present. They presented their annual concert in February with several soloists.

During the year the staff published approximately twenty-five issues containing eight pages each. They also published some special issues. This year, for the first time, they published an issue with a photograph on the first page; the photograph was of the football team at Homecoming time. They also published a special issue for the Sectionals and the regular special issues at holiday time.

Among the items added by the staff were: Mr. Hey, the mascot for the first semester, a new typewriter, and a spider monkey which was painted on the wall by the exchange student for this year, Beatrice Komkommer.

This year's EL-PE staff started to work before school started to meet early deadlines. Each member of the staff sold ads in a designated section of town.

The historical section was added to the yearbook. This section was created because the 1962 EL-PE will be the last to be published at our present high school. This section relates the history of the High School from the years 1923 to 1962.

For the first time, this year the El-Pe contains colored photographs. These colored pictures are of the present high school, the marching band, and the fall play.

The members of the staff had a more difficult time than usual in meeting deadlines because the deadlines were set a month earlier than last year's. Besides scurrying around to meet deadlines, the staff has to write copy, draw layouts and identify pictures.

Slicers have victorious season again

Junior Rick Reider couldn't seem to get away from his opponents as he charged across muddy Kiwanis Field.

The 1961 Slicers hoped that they might do as well this year as they had done last year. Although they lost several stars from last year, they finished with a respectable 6-4 record.

The Slicers verified a well-earned reputation as a defense-minded ball club by throwing up their version of the "iron curtain" in a 20-0 season opener victory over Muncie Central. In capturing the victory over Muncie Central, two touchdowns were passes from Mike Hoke to Gene Payne and Jon Tonsoni, and one an intercepted pass run by Jeff Lamber. The two extra points were expertly kicked by Dick Jones.

After the Slicers defeated Muncie Central, they started the struggle with Gary Roosevelt in which they came out on top with a 13-6 victory. Using a play like the one in the Muncie Central game, Hoke passed to Tonsoni in the end zone for the first six points. Then late in the fourth quarter when a tie seemed certain, Hoke passed to Payne for the Slicers' second touchdown. Jones kicked the extra point.

In their third game, the Slicers had high hopes of downing South Bend Central. But Central's powerful runners were too much for the Slicers. It seemed as though the Slicers just couldn't get started. The Slicers finished the game with a 13-0 defeat and a 2-1 record.

Disappointment followed four straight losses

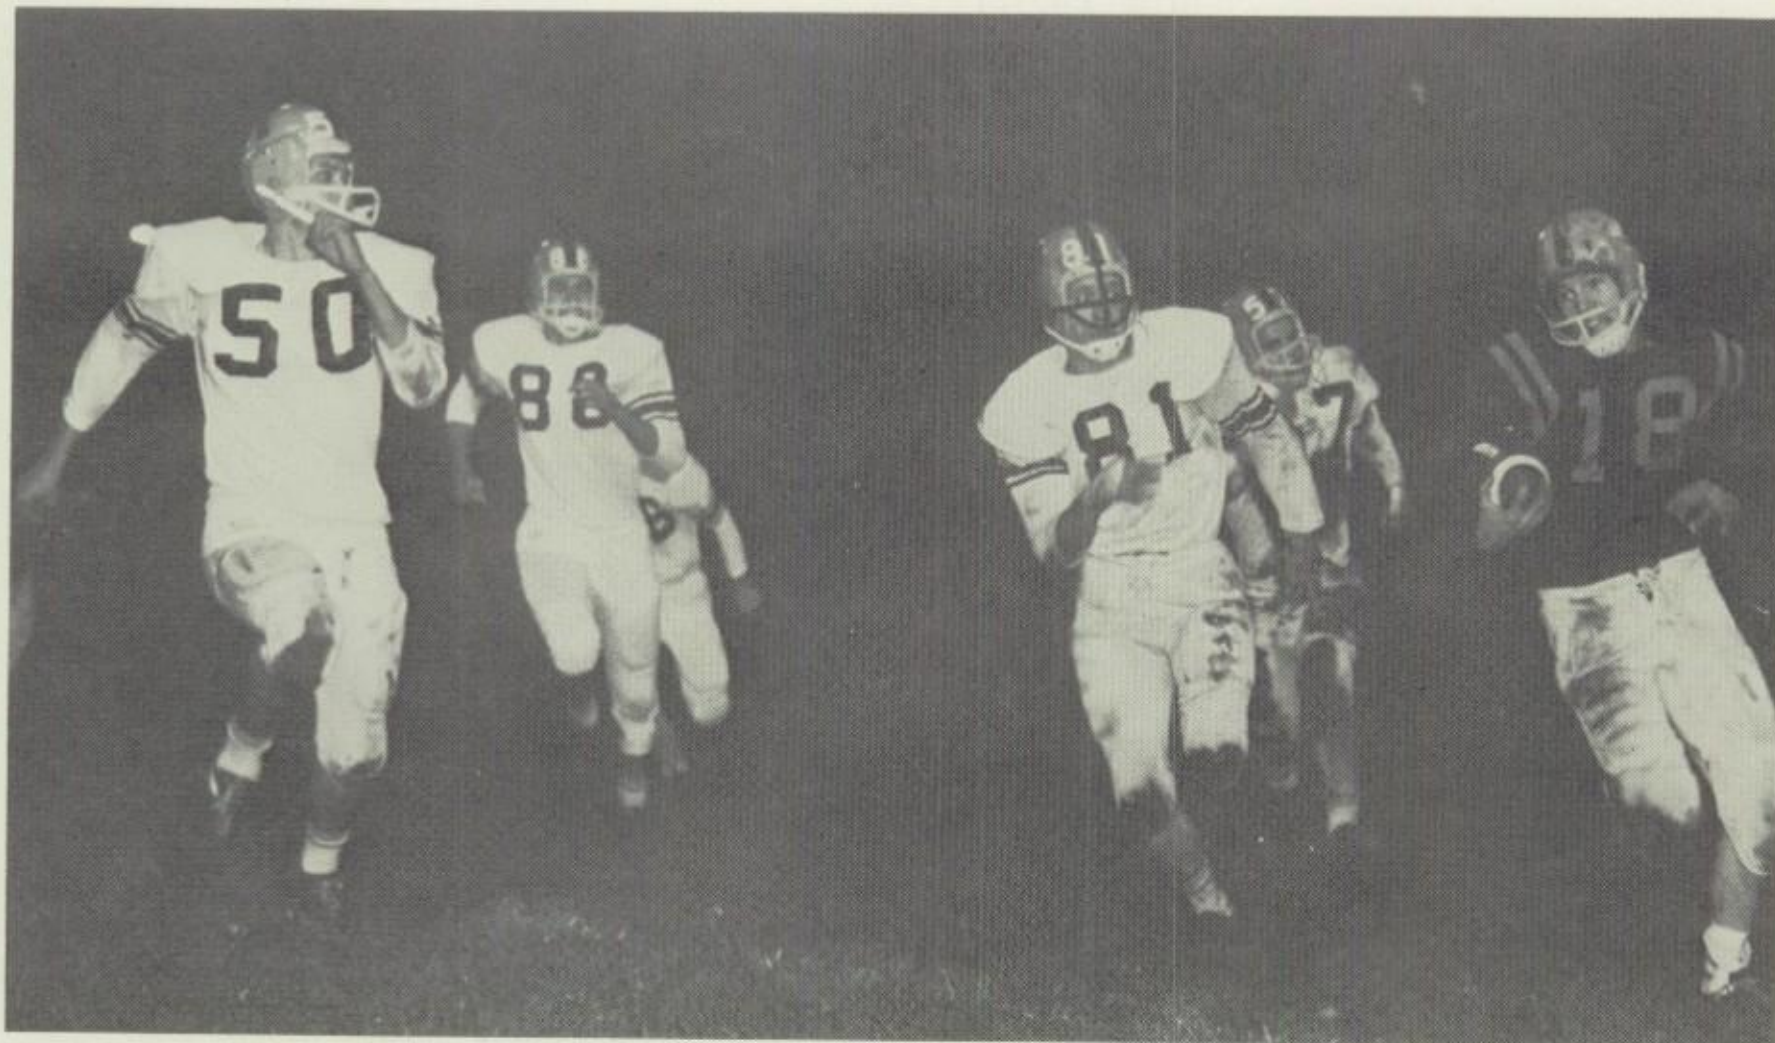

The battle with Michigan City was a great disappointment. In many respects LaPorte was the better team in the LaPorte-Michigan City game. The Slicers more than matched City's running attack, racking up 251 rushing yards to 206 yards for the Red Devils. The Slicers also stopped Michigan City at the goal line twice. Payne scurried around left end on a perfectly executed 57 yard touchdown play. That was the end for the Slicers. Within a six minute span in the second quarter, City had wrapped up the ball game with 19 points.

Even though the Slicers had lost to City they still had hopes of defeating Elkhart. Elkhart, thoroughly outplayed as the game statistics conclusively prove, was still able to register a 20-13 victory over the Slicers. The Slicers first TD came in the second quarter with a pass from Jones to Dave Reed, and Jones kicked the PAT. Tom Sceifres made the second TD early in the fourth quarter, but the two TD's just didn't make enough points to top the 20 points scored by Elkhart.

The Slicers traveled to South Bend Washington for a "hoped for" victory. For three quarters of the game it looked like a sure victory. Midway in the first quarter, with the backfield clicking, the Slicers moved the ball down to the 19 yardline and this was close enough for Sceifres to make a TD on the next play. In the third quarter Reed made a diving catch for an additional TD and Jones kicked the PAT. Then the Panthers caught fire and scored 20 points in the fourth quarter for an unexpected 20-13 victory.

There was never any doubt about the homecoming game against South Bend Adams. Scoring on the first two plays from the scrimmage line, the Slicers started on their 38-12 victory. The Slicers kicked off and recovered a fumble on the Adams' 16 yardline. Then on the first play Hoke passed to Payne for the first TD. The Slicers kicked off again and forced Adams to punt. The Slicers got the ball on their own 30 yardline and on the first play (second in the game) Rick Reider charged up the middle for the second TD. Payne and Reider each scored another and Sceifres and Jones got the other two TD's while Barker took over and kicked two PAT's.

Slicers triumph in last four of season

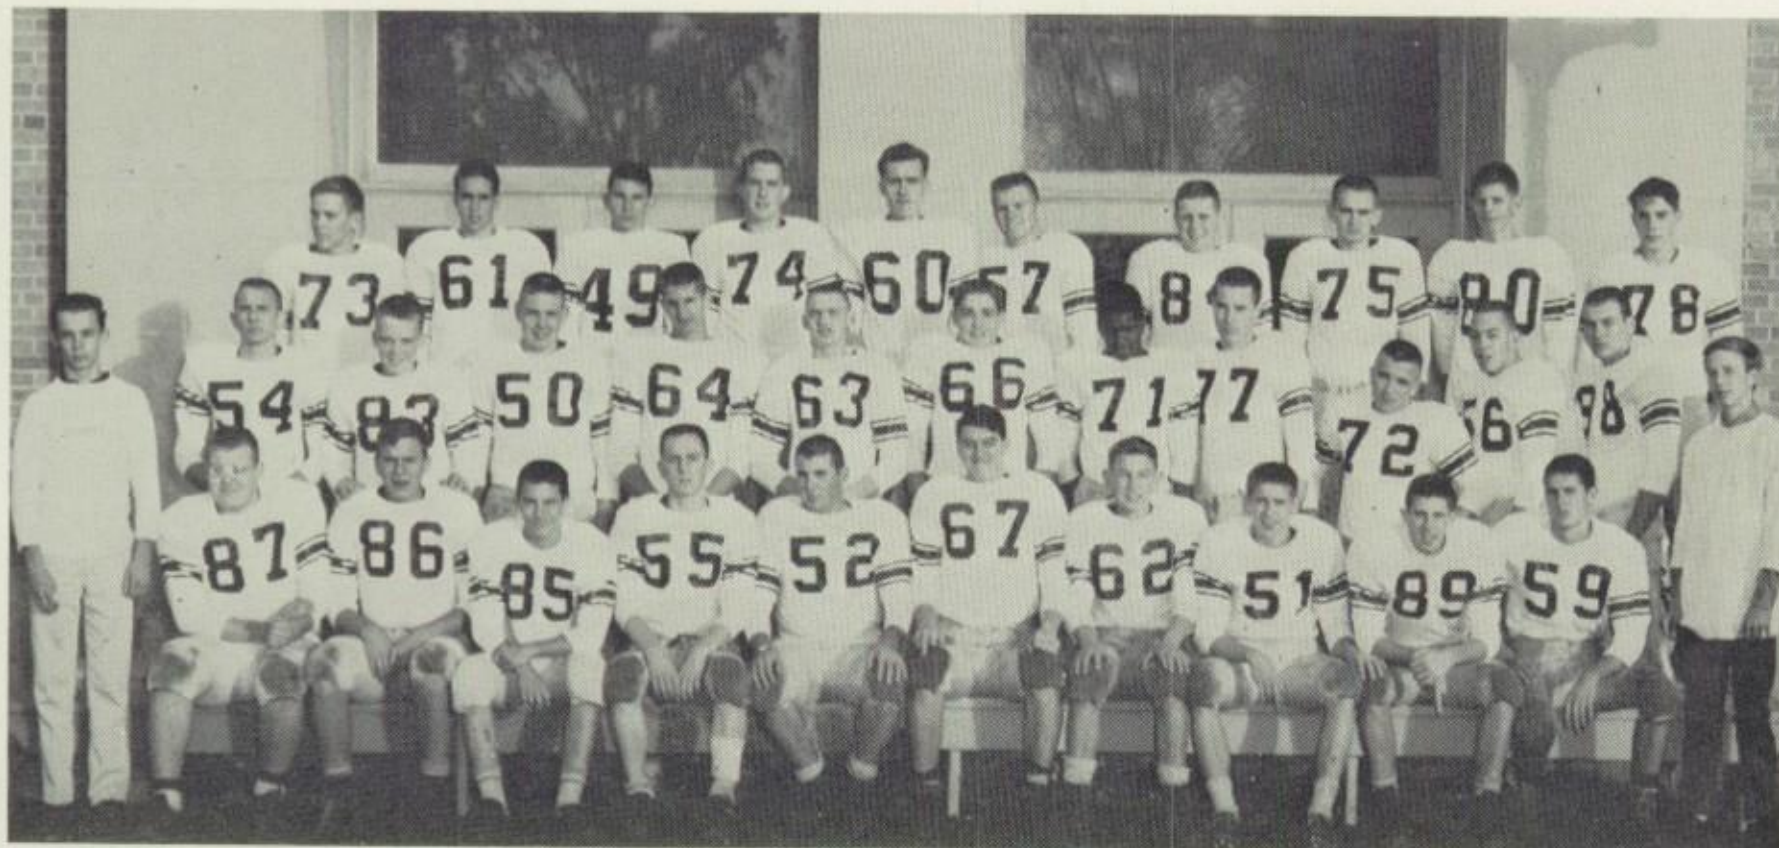

With the victory over Adams on their record the Slicers met with Penn High. Early in the first quarter Penn made a TD and it looked like a rough night for the Slicers. The Slicers, waking up and finding themselves behind, soon proved that they had just had a slow start. Just enough points to win wasn't enough for the Slicers. They opened up on Penn and racked up a total 34 points. Reider had two TD's, Reed had two TD's, Sceifres had one TD, and Jones had 3 PAT's.

With a 4-4 record the Slicers faced Mishawaka. This game proved to be one of the best of the entire season when the Slicers came from behind to upset the previously unbeaten Cave-men 29-27. In the first quarter the Slicers got two points for a safety and near the end of the second quarter Sceifres scored the first TD. Early in the third quarter the Slicers moved the ball to the one and Hoke carried the ball over for the second TD. Sceifres scored two more times in the fourth quarter and Jones Kicked a total of 3 PAT's for a total score of 29 points.

In the final game of the season the Slicers fought Goshen. Since it was their last game the Slicers decided to shine and that is just what they did. All the Slicers played their best and racked up a 34-7 victory. The Slicers got off to a good start, but Goshen got the best of them and scored a TD. This didn't affect the Slicers at all, however. A safety, two TD's by Reed, two TD's by Payne, one TD by Reider, and two PAT's by Jones gave the Slicers their 34 points and a victory in their exciting final game of the 1961 season.

Harriers have respectable conference record

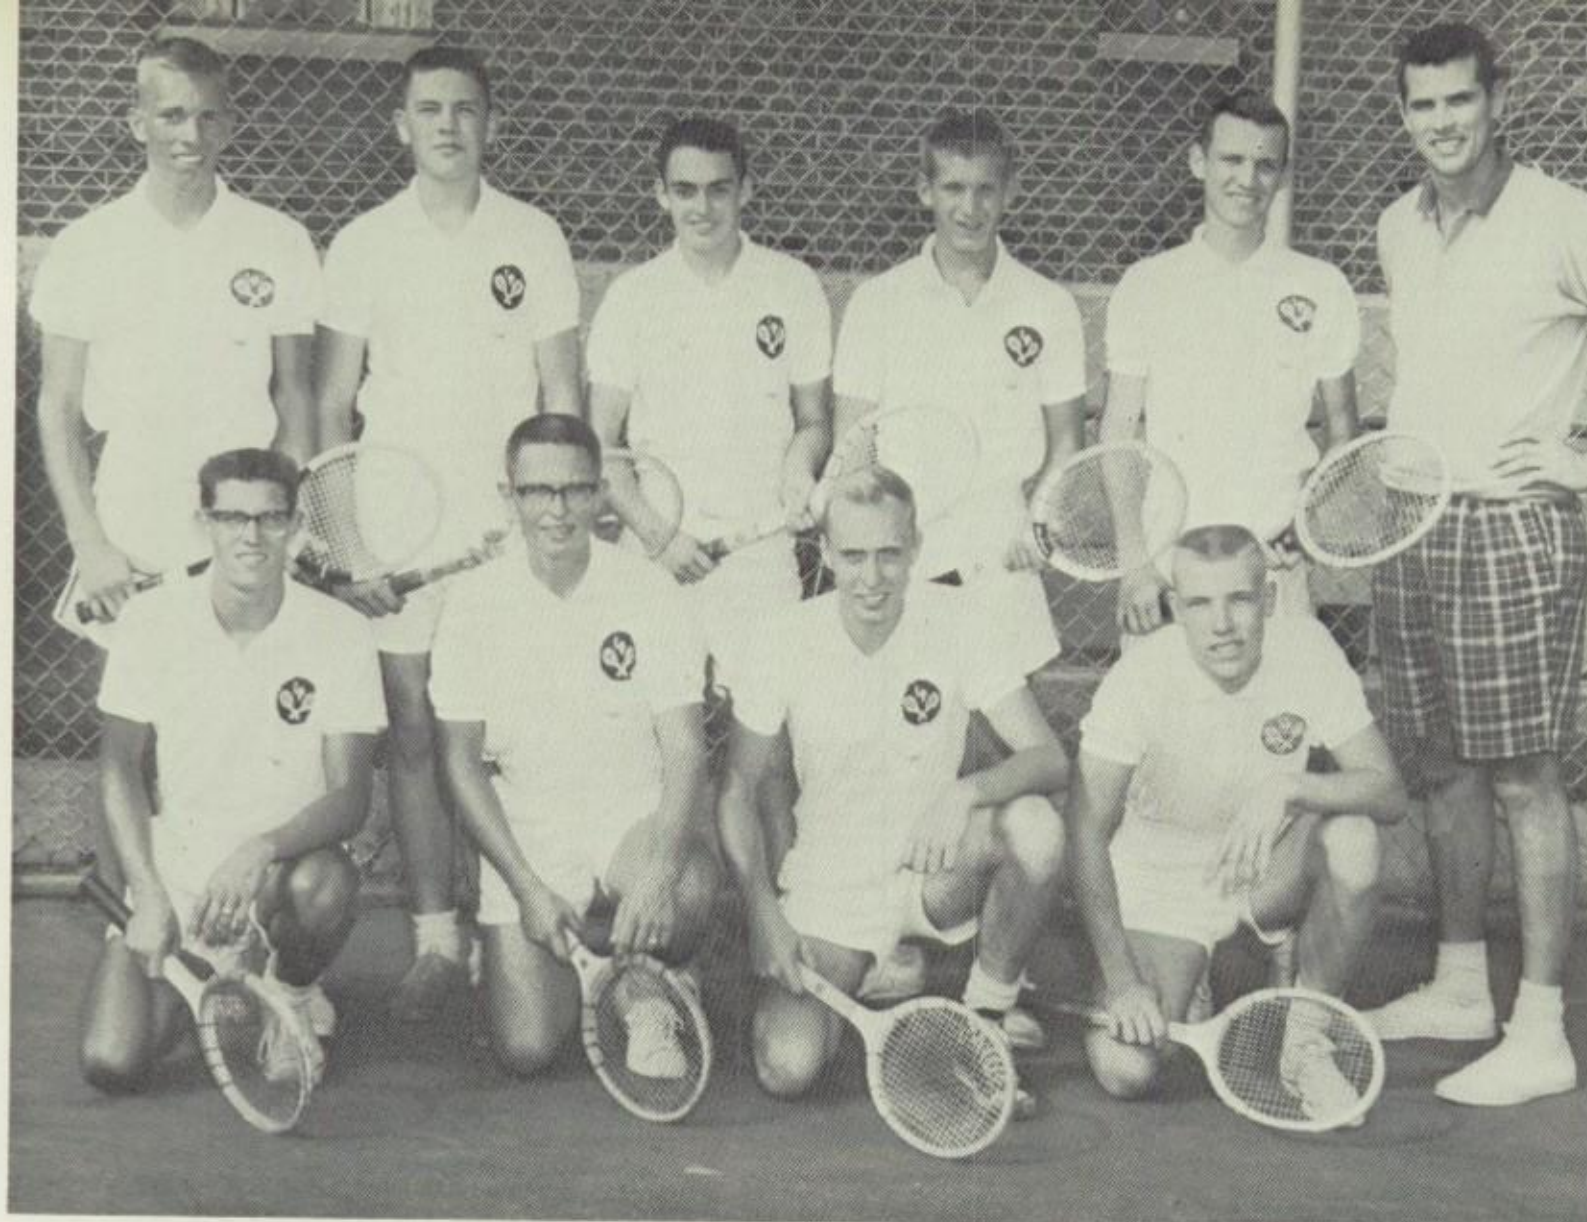

The LaPorte High School cross country team, coached by Gerald Van Wagner, had a respectable record of 10 wins against 4 losses. LaPorte managed to capture fourth place in the ENIHSC cross country run. In the sectional meet the Slicer runners grabbed second place.

Bill Wooden finished first in a field of more than 150 harriers during the NIHSC cross country meet, and Sid Clemons was eighth.

The Slicers sent Wooden and Clemons to the state cross country meet. Wooden pulled in 12th and Clemons managed to come in 24th.

Dick Jones (42) soars over Valpo Vikings for two points.

The LaPorte cagers started the season with an impressive 62-47 victory over Hobart. Ed Sabie led the team in scoring with 17 points, and Dave Reed managed to score 15 points.

Picking up speed and points, the Slicers managed to clip Horace Mann 71-54. Kendall Kessler scored 14 points with six out of six free throws. John Musselman and Sabie followed with 13 and 12 points respectively.

The Slicers rolled to their third straight victory, 72-61. Reed picked up 18 points scattered throughout the game, and Kessler followed with 16 points.

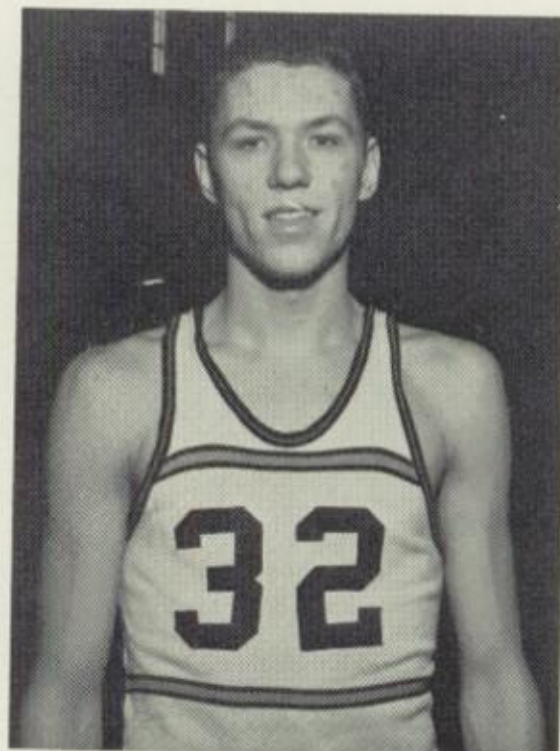

The undefeated Slicers held off Elkhart 39-38 for their fourth triumph. Reed, who missed only four shots, scored more than half the Slicer's total. Reed made 10 baskets plus one free throw for a total of 21 points.

Crawfordsville upset LaPorte for our first loss. LaPorte converted only four of the 12 free throws. Musselman came back strong in the second half to lead the Slicers with 11 points.

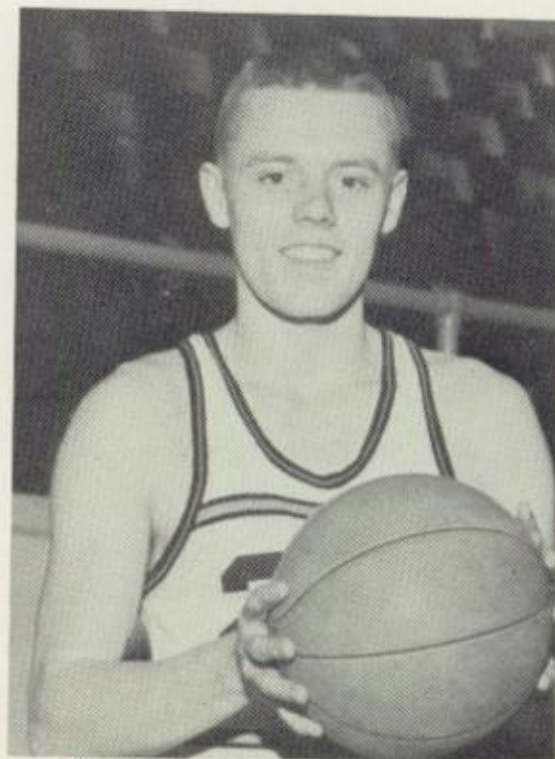

Despite a late fourth quarter, the LaPorte cagers returned to form with a 60-57 conference victory over Fort Wayne North Side. Guard Reed, was LaPorte's top scorer with 17 markers. Sabie scored 12 points in this close battle.

The Slicers traveled to Lafayette and took on Jefferson High which was then ranked among the top 10 teams in the state.

Because of a lack of height, the Slicers could not control the backboards as they would have liked.

After 32 minutes of regulation basketball and three minutes of overtime, the powerful South Bend Central Bears slipped away with their 68-66 triumph. Reed shot as the gun sounded, and the ball dipped into the basket and back out. Musselman was high with 18 points.

Reed's clutch shooting produced a 52-51 win over South Bend Riley for LaPorte. Reed came through with three quick buckets in the last minute and 15 points throughout the game to be the high point man for the Slicers.

The conference game with South Bend Central seemed to be a duplicate of the game played a week before. Central led in the game except for a short while during the fourth quarter. Since Central was ranked sixth in the state, it was quite a compliment to the Slicers to play such a good game in the 48-47 win by Central. The cold shooting Slicers lost to the Vikings, 63-58. In the first quarter Reed clicked in 16 points. Sophomore Dennis Combs fought hard against Valpo's veteran center Steve O'Neill. In three quarters the Slicers managed only 19 field goals out of an unbelievable 64 shots.

Dick Jones attempts to shoot over a Riley foe.

The tall tough South Bend Riley Wildcats shocked the Slicers, 57-56. Riley's team effort, coupled with a .543 average on field goals, was just a bit more than LaPorte's uninspired Slicers could overcome. Jones, playing his finest game this season, collected 10 of his 21 points the fourth period in a Slicer bid that failed.

Our slow starting Slicers managed to smash Niles with Jones and Sabie as high scorers in a 79-49 slam for their seventh win. Coach Carl McNulty revised his lineup and before the evening was over everyone on the Slicer squad had been able to play and score.

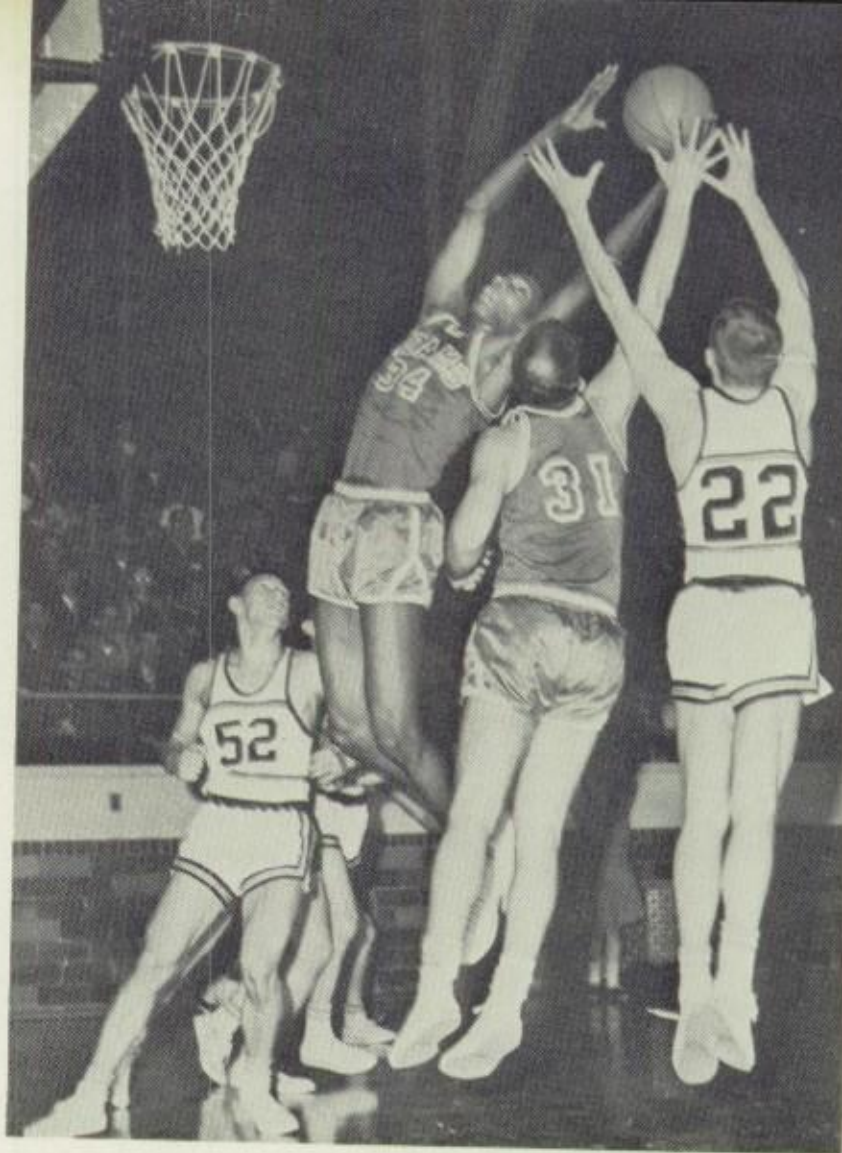

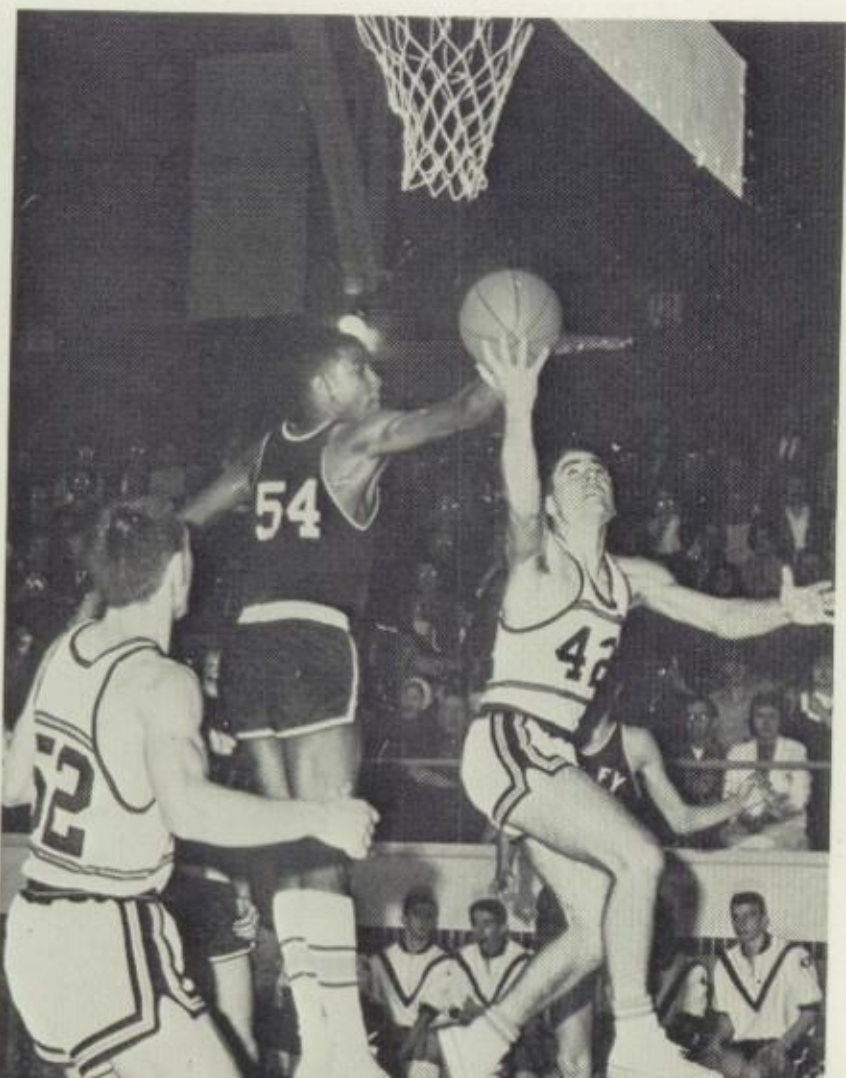

Adams ripped the Slicers with Williams hitting 29 and Jones hitting 19 for LaPorte in a 62-52 loss. The Slicers seemed to make too many mistakes, yet there were moments when the Slicers looked like possible winners.

The Devils did it again in a three minute press that killed the Slicers in a 74-72 defeat, despite a .653 shooting average. The Slicers committed only two errors in the first half and eleven in the second half of the game.

The Slicers snapped back and downed Noll 56-52. Free throw shooting was what saved the LaPorte victory. Our men converted 24 out of 30 shots for a .800 average. After trailing by 11 points early in the fourth quarter, Noll scrambled back to trail 53-51. They were unable to become victorious in the 23 seconds remaining.

Sabie paced the Slicers to a 64-63 victory over Goshen. We needed Sabie's two clutch free throws with eight seconds to go before LaPorte was assured of its ninth victory in 17 games and a 3-4 ENIHSC mark. Sabie totaled 21 points and was followed by Reed's 16.

The Slicers won their 3rd straight victory, 65-61. Jones led LaPorte past Mishawaka with 23 points. Jones had 12 precious points in the final quarter as the Slicers came back to win. Reed was next best in scoring with 14.

Hammond defeated the Slicers with Serbein's record of 44 points. Jones scored 23 points in our 74-59 defeat. Coach McNulty used 4 different La Porte cagers on defense against Serbein and nearly everyone got in trouble. LaPorte ended up with 24 personals and Serbein was responsible for the majority of them.

The Washington Panthers won over the Slicers 52-47. It was a dismal showing by LaPorte. Sabie was tops with 19 points. The Slicers did not seem to have the will to win. It didn't give the Panthers much of an edge but enough to win. However, the Slicers came back strong in the second quarter. Right after the second half Sabie scored a drive-in to tie the score.

La Porte met Michigan City in their first game of the sectionals. Michigan City won their fourteenth straight victory over LaPorte with the score, 65-60. It was another case of the Slicers making too many mistakes in an attempt to win.

Matmen win 8 out of 12 meets

The Slicer matmen opened their season with a 35-10 victory over Penn High.

Last year our matmen met East Chicago Roosevelt's wrestlers and suffered a 48-0 loss. This year the mighty Slicers met Roosevelt and came out on top with a 26-22 victory.

Our wrestlers were undefeated when they met with Mishawaka. The Slicers captured their third straight victory with a score of 22-19.

In the LaPorte-South Bend Riley game, LaPorte managed a 16 point lead. Riley came from behind to win the meet 26-23.

South Bend Adams was just a little stronger than LaPorte. Adams started the meet with a 14-0 lead in the first three matches. The Slicers came back strong but couldn't quite catch up.

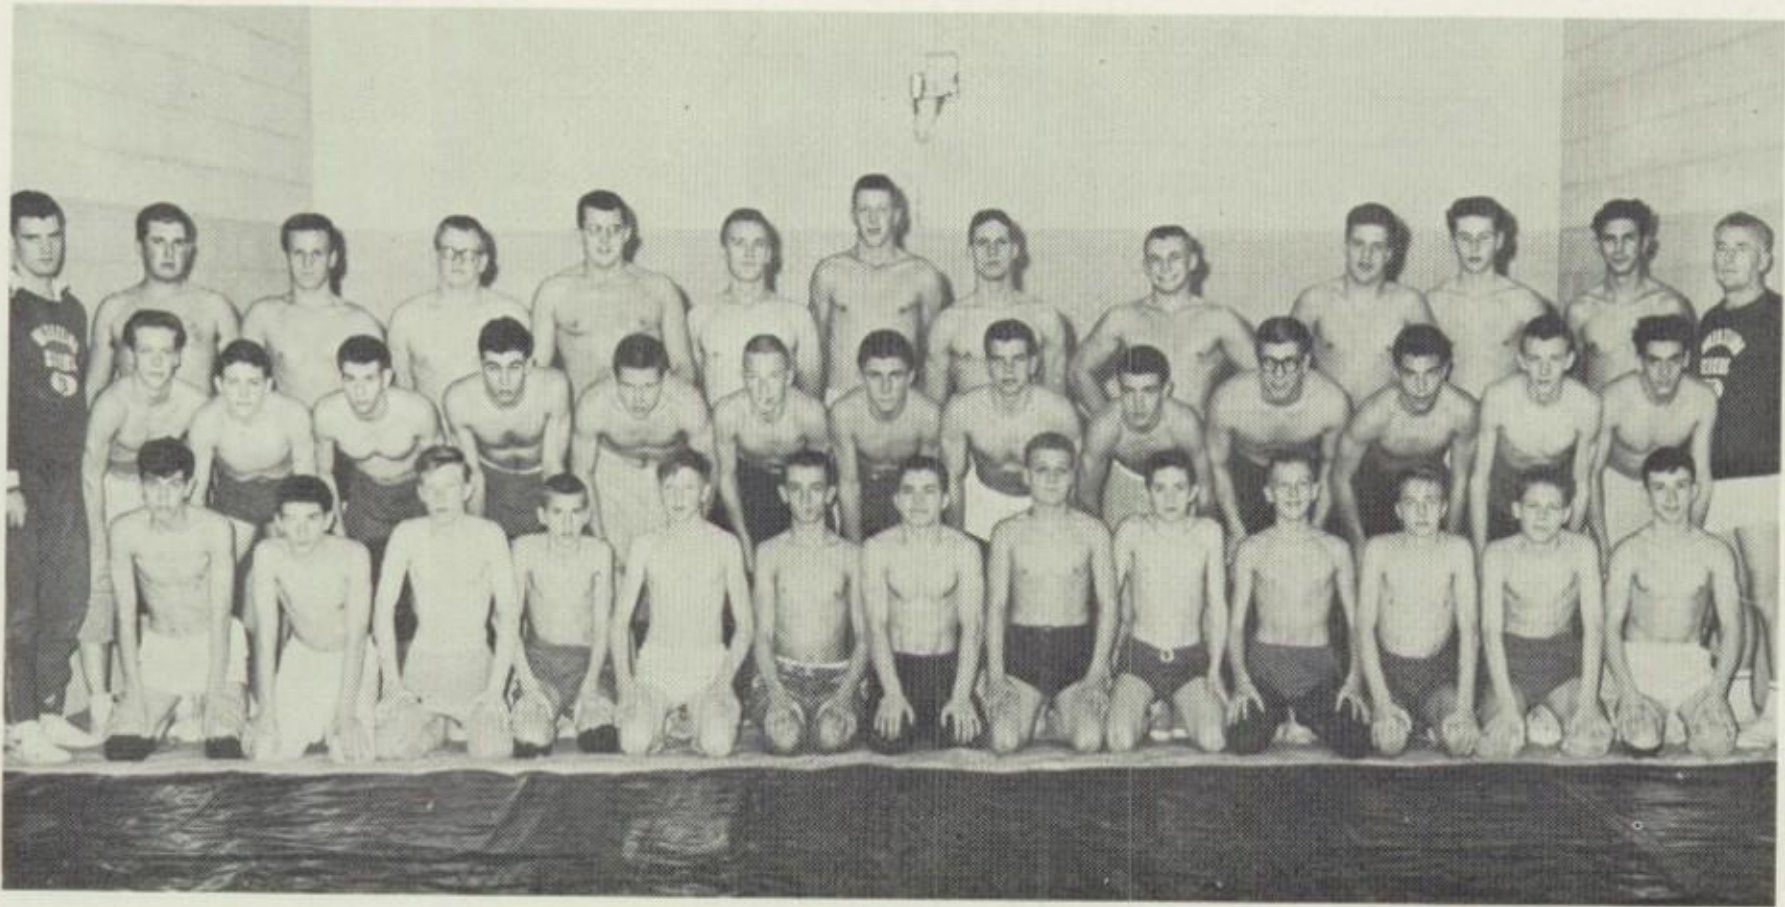

Our wrestlers made a good showing by beating South Bend Washington 31-15. This was their fourth win in six matches.

LaPorte smeared Portage 40-5. Our team won in every match except one.

Our wrestlers suffered their second loss in three days at Elkhart 21-17. The loss was due to losing the first five matches.

The matters' record became 7 and 4 with a 32-13 victory over Valparaiso. LaPorte's victory never seemed in doubt.

LaPorte High's team finished fifth in the ENIHSC trials in South Bend. Dave Farnsworth was the only winner for LaPorte.

Coach Bob Hoke's team won over East Chicago Washington 48-5 in a rescheduled match. The matters finished in a three-way tie for fourth in the sectional at South Bend Adams. Dave Farnsworth's string of triumphs was stopped when he injured his shoulder. Our unbeaten heavyweight was forced to default the championship when he injured his shoulder during his semifinal bout.

John Shrader gives Terry Fleming some pointers on his starts.

The Slicer track team will find it mighty hard to improve last year's third place finish in the ENIHSC. Head Coach Dick Deardurff has hopes for this year's team doing even better.

Jerry Saffell is rated as our top man in the low hurdles and is the anchor man on the half mile relay team. Saffell could be the best in the high hurdles at the conference.

Deardurff and his assistants, Al Bader and Jim Eger, have high hopes for several juniors. They are Rick Reider, Vic Wilhelm, Rod Baumgartner, Grady Fitts, Ron Gliva, Mike Bubalo, Chris Mathis, and Jerry Swan.

Bill Wooden and Willie Lubs will be running the mile and Sid Clemons the half mile. Kendall Kessler has shown remarkable improvement in the dashes with Dan Poe. Harold Hesselrode has already topped his best height in the pole vault. Tom Sceifres is working hard on the high jump. Dave Farnsworth, veteran senior, could be a conference champion in the shot put. Team captain, John Shrader suffered a foot injury and is temporarily out of action.

Slicer trackmen practice no matter how bad the weather.

Coaches Jim Eger, Dick Deardurff, and Al Bader watch their trackmen work out.

Golfers try for the fourth conference title

The LaPorte High Golf Team has won 45 matches and lost only five and has won the ENIHSC title three years in a row, while coached by Bob Hoke. Though losing several members from last year's squad, the team hopes to achieve results as good as last year's. As a basis for their hope they have five returning lettermen and nineteen others out for the team. The returning lettermen are seniors Bill Regnier and Bernie Jonas, juniors Charlie Boyd and Mike Hoke, and sophomore Ken Young.

Even with hope and luck, the Slicers will have an especially rough time with South Bend Riley at conference and West Lafayette at State.

Successful Intramural Program

One of the least publicized but one of the fastest growing and most popular extra-curricular activities in LaPorte High this year was the intramural sports program for boys. This program, directed by Mr. Allesee, had over one hundred boys enrolled in it. With sportsman-like participation of the boys and with the direction of Mr. Allesee, the program was a success.

Floyd Skaggs, John Chalikh, Mr. Allesee, Joe Sutor, Scott Graves, and Gary Havens watch Ladonna Johnson during drawings for Intramural Tournament.

PEOPLE

La Porte High School

The school board: Mr. Howard Murdock, Mr. Frederick Lisarelli, Mr. Merlin Porter, Mr. George Boklund, Mr. John Block, Mrs. A. J. Rumely, Jr., and Mr. Harold Hargrave.

*Mr. Harold Hargrave
Superintendent of Schools*

Administration

This has been a busy year for the School Board and the Administration. It has been many years since a job as important as the planning of the new high school has been given to them. Many hours of concerted effort have been devoted to this most important project.

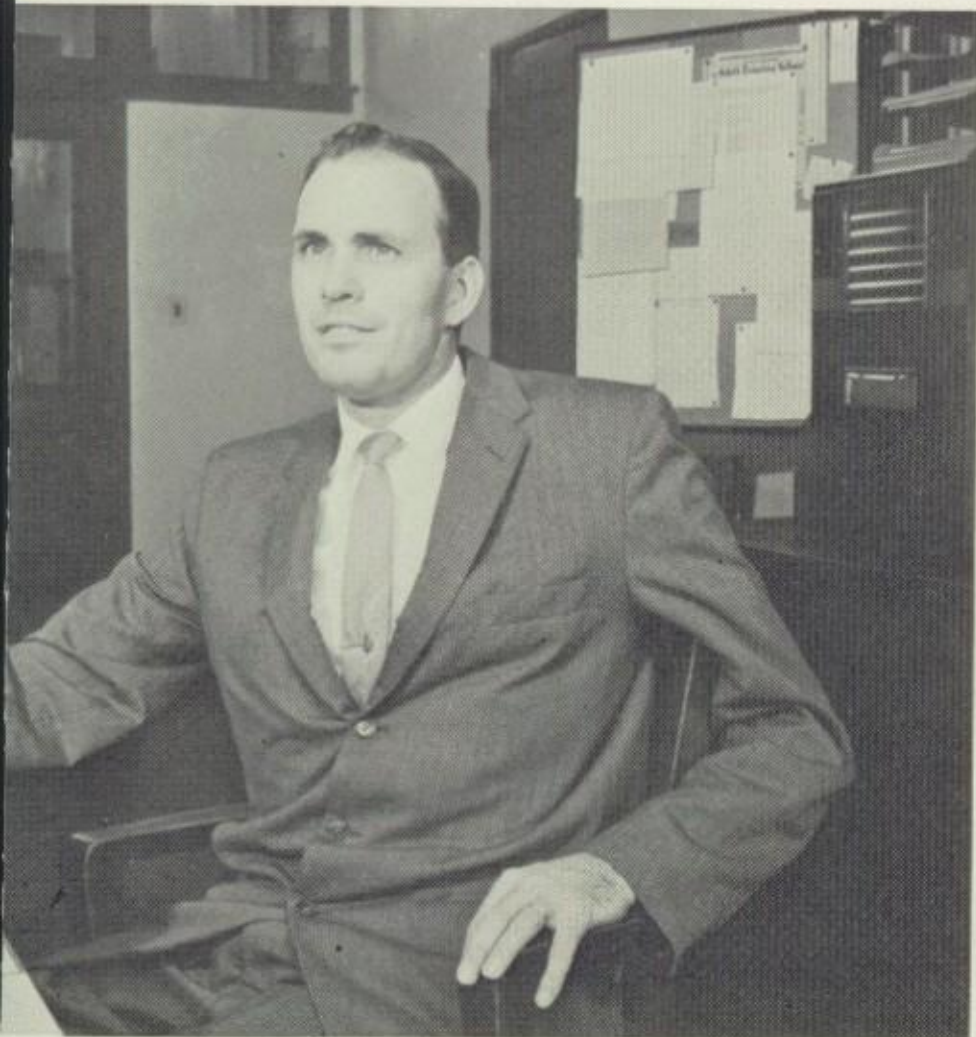

The School Board is now elected by the voters of Center Township and the city of LaPorte. Before May of 1961 it was appointed by the city council. In accordance with the plan consolidating Center Township and LaPorte City School systems, a person has been added to the Board which previously consisted of six members. He will begin his term of office in August of 1962. Each member serves a term of four years. These terms are staggered to insure that this governing body will always have experienced members.

LaPorte is greatly indebted to these citizens who serve us in this capacity.

Mrs. John McMahon, Mrs. Ward Singleton, and Mrs. Rudy Zeller, cooks in the cafeteria, happily await the noon hour rush.

William McGaha, Kenneth Bennitt, and John Holloway work hard to keep our school clean.

In October, Mason Boyd was elected class president with Neil Scharf as vice-president. Myra Bowell was elected to the position of secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Robert Dring was the class sponsor who helped the sophomores make money for next year's prom. One of their projects was an open record hop held in November. The second semester a freshman-sophomore dance was held.

The class of 1965 was the last freshman class to enter LaPorte High.

This class was led by Tim McCarty as president. The vice-president was Dick Fitzpatrick and Judy Jones was secretary-treasurer. During the first semester, the class sponsored a closed freshman dance to raise money for future projects. For the second semester, they had a dance with the sophomore class.

Mr. William Hannah, the sponsor, helped the freshmen with their activities.

The main project for the juniors was the junior-senior prom. A bake sale and a "shoe shine day", as well as after-game dances, were sponsored by the class.

Randy Wollert, class president, was helped by Bill Beesley, vice-president; Nancy Smith, secretary; and Mary Anne Miller, treasurer. Junior class sponsors were Mrs. Dale Guyer and Mr. John Traver.

The members of the Class of '62 began their high school careers by choosing freshman officers Dave Reed, President; Bill Regnier, Vice-President; and Sue Elshout, Secretary-Treasurer. The biggest events of that year were a freshman sock-hop and a freshman-sophomore semi-formal. With the help of their sponsor Miss Dorothy Dick, their freshman year was a successful one.

During the sophomore year Miss Dick again served as their class sponsor. With her help Sophomore President David Farnsworth, Vice-President Cynthia Hedstrom, and Secretary-Treasurer Bette Huffman planned the annual Freshman-Sophomore Dance which, this year, was a sock-hop. Another highlight of the year was a beatnik dance.

In the fall of their junior year, the class of '62 sold Christmas candy. The money raised from the candy sale and the after game dances was used for the Junior-Senior Prom. The biggest job of the year for President Willy Lubs, Vice-President Scott Baker, Secretary Virginia Lentz, and Treasurer Pat Dunifon was preparing for this big event. The prom theme was "Midnight in Manhattan." The students were assisted in all projects by Mr. John Traver and Mr. Wayne Tarnow.

As the last graduating class of the present LaPorte High School, we elected Dave Farnsworth, President; Ken Kessler, Vice-President; Carol Keenan, Secretary; and Sandi Ransom, Treasurer. By working in the concession stands and sponsoring the after-game dances, we earned money for the Junior-Senior Banquet. Class sponsors Miss LaDonna Erickson and Mr. Wayne Johnson assisted us in our final year at LaPorte High. The year was filled with many memorable activities. The major events were the Prom, given by the Junior Class, the Senior Picnic, and the most important event of all, graduation.

Beatrice Komkommer
A.F.S. Student

Our American Field Service student for the 1961-62 school year was Beatrice Komkommer from Hove, Belgium, a suburb of Antwerp. While living in the United States Beatrice resided with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dolaway and their family.

Bea, as many of her friends call her, is a petite brunette who is very enthusiastic about all her experiences as a student in the United States. She was pleased as well as impressed with the large social life of the average American student. In Belgium there are many more restrictions on a teenager's activities. The number of American cars also surprised her.

As a student at LaPorte High she participated in many extracurricular activities. She was active in Pepper Club, Social Studies Club, and Spanish Club. She also had a part in the Fall Play. One of her favorite hobbies is art. She did art work for the High School Page in the Herald Argus and for the Hi-Times.

Beatrice studied English for three years before coming to the United States and spoke it fluently upon her arrival. She also speaks German, French, Spanish and Dutch.

We, the 1962 El Pe staff, wish to thank all of these people—students, teachers, and advertisers—who assisted us in the production of this yearbook.

Our special thanks go to Mr. Joe Mikula for photography, Vogue Studio and the Camera Shop for developing our pictures, and to the Herald-Argus for the sports action shots.

Covers: Mr. Jack Bundy of the S. K. Smith Company, Chicago, Ill.

Lithographers: Foote and Davies, Inc., Atlanta, Georgia. Our special thanks to Mr. Ed Hackleman of Foote and Davies, Inc. for his assistance.

We also wish to thank all the people who have helped us in securing pictures and information for our historical section; especially Mr. Harold Hargrave, Miss Ruth Walk, Mr. Henry Schulze, Mrs. Bernice Thomas, Miss Frankie Jones, and Mr. Norman Hubner.
